Gotcha... finally

Milton District High School base runner Carol Newman was caught in a rundown between second and third in girls softball action Wednesday at Brian Best Park. She was tagged out by Loyola (Oakville) first baseman Tiffany Moore to finish off the awkward play. Milton District won the lopsided contest 20-4.

Offence dominates slo-pitch

Re/max Realty's bats came alive Monday evening as they pounded out 42 hits on their way to a 35-14 drubbing of Halton Pool and Patio. The Poolmen had their share of offence as 32 hits splashed off their bats, but they were less timely.

Loris Fagion and Wayne Nikolich of Re/max led all hitters with perfect six for six and five for five nights respectively. Fagion had two doubles while Nikolich supplied a double and a triple. Barry McTrach, not to be outdone, contributed five hits including a couple of doubles.

Pool and Patio's attack was led by Wayne Yantz who had five singles in six trips and he also reached on an error. Most tellingly, he only scored one run. Craig Sharp, Cecil Van Gelder and Jim Crutcher all had four hits. Sharp tripled and doubled while Crutcher tripled.

The scheduled contest between St. Clair Paint and Paper and Goligers Travel had to be cancelled due to a soggy field at Brian Best Park. It seems that Mother Nature isn't a slo-pitch fan.

The offensive numbers kept piling up Tuesday as The Dickens and Canadian Pacific accounted for another 64 hits. Can Pac Foresters felled The Dickens 22-8. The Foresters scored eight runs in the first inning another five in the second and never looked back.

Mike Mutcherson, last week's hero, came back to earth with two doubles and a single in five trips. Barry Batanoff was a perfect five for five as was Paul Page. Four other Can Pac players chipped in with four hit nights.

The Dickens' John Vanderwater and Fred Bakes tried to inspire their teammates with leadership. Vanderwater was four for five with two doubles while Bakes had four singles in five trips. Moe Miljour, Steve Smith and Sam Perry each had three hits. Two of Perry's were doubles.

Tuesday's other game featured the Key Centre and Fat Freddy's both looking for their first win of the season. This game had all the promise of a titanic struggle, and neither team disappointed as the key cutters fought from behind to outlast the Fat Ones 20-16.
