

Attention mini golfers

The Milton Kinsmen Club is inviting local mini golfers to putt their way to Executive Fairways Golf Centre this Saturday. The club is hosting its first mini golf tournament at the Highway 25 course from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Children and adults of all ages can take part in the contest which supports Milton District Hospital. Members of the service club are looking to make the tournament an annual fundraising event, said Pierre DeBie of the organization. "This is the first time we've organized a mini golf tournament," he said. "We're hoping to do it every year." The cost is $5 per person or $10 per family. The best golfers will win trophies and prizes.

Inmate sent to hospital after Maplehurst fight

Halton police are investigating a scuffle between two Maplehurst Correctional Centre inmates which sent one man to hospital.

A fight broke out at about 9:30 a.m. last Wednesday between two men aged 21 and 43 inside the detention centre.

The 43-year-old inmate was taken to Milton District Hospital with a fractured ankle and swollen eye.

Co-op safe emptied

More than $2,000 was removed from the safe at the Milton Co-op farm supply store on Bronte Street Saturday.

The safe break-in occurred in the store office.

Car stereo stolen

The owner of a vehicle parked in a Main Street lot overnight May 24 was the target of thieves who broke into the car and removed the Alpine stereo and speakers.

The culprits smashed a window to gain entry into the vehicle and damaged the tires for a total loss of $1,610.

Cigarette heist

More than 20 cartons of cigarettes have been reported missing from the Royal Canadian Legion on Charles Street.

The cigarettes, which disappeared between May 3 and 10, were Rothmans, Du Maurier, and Players Light brands.

Shoplifting

A 29-year-old Laurier Avenue woman has been charged with theft after a security guard at Zellers noticed a shoplifter leave the store with a number of items without paying.

The goods, which included children's clothes, totalled about $117.

Sign stolen

An antique Coca-Cola sign valued at $700 was stolen from the backyard of a Campbellville home overnight Friday.

The metal sign was on an eight-foot pole. Police are investigating.

House break-in

A Guelph Line home was the target of thieves Wednesday. The house was broken into sometime between 7 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

Stolen were two television sets, a video cassette recorder, and beer, and coins worth $2,000. The culprits forced a door open to gain entry.

CRIME STOPPERS OF HALTON

Gas bar robbery foiled

Halton Regional Police in Halton Hills and Crime Stoppers are appealing to the public for assistance in solving an attempted armed robbery on Guelph Street in Georgetown.

On May 28, the victim was closing the Penny Gas Bar at 358 Guelph Street in Georgetown for the night when a male suspect asked for the key to the washroom.

Shortly after, a second male suspect with a scarf over his face knocked on the kiosk door. When the victim answered the knock, he was confronted with a gun. The victim immediately retreated to an office and called for help. The culprit fled westbound on foot.

The first suspect was confronted by the victim when he left the washroom and indications are he knew suspect 2. The male left, also on foot, south along Guelph Street.

The suspects are both male, white, about 20 years old, with brown hair, 5'6", and wearing black leather jackets, but one man is heavy set and the other has a thin build.

If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other case, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000. You need not give your name and your call will be treated with anonymity. Call 1-800-668-5151 or 825-TIPS (8477).

IT'S YOUR BUSINESS

Trading city life for tranquility

If Allycia Uccello was to paint a picture of her future, the setting would be her family's rural property and the subject would be an art academy.

Until she reaches this goal, the Campbellville artist has painted a smaller picture, beginning with her own studio and a summer art school for children.

Ms Uccello, along with her husband and two children, traded city life in Toronto for a house set in an apple orchard four years ago. Although she continues to work with students in Toronto area schools, the multi-media artist would prefer to stay closer to home.

"I see this as a unique situation," she explains.

Her studio, which once provided a cool storage area for apples, will serve as a classroom for up to 15 students aged 6 to 13 years. The surrounding property has pond a complete with swans and wooded areas, where the students will hike and collect raw materials for some of their projects.

While watercolour painting and drawing will be taught during the one-week summer sessions, they will play a secondary role to some "specialized" creations.

Projects which have been "time tested" on children for the past 23 years are the focus. The suckers cut from the apple trees will be made into walking sticks with creatures at the top. Woodland animals fashioned from wood and bark, as well as treasure boxes from which creatures pop when opened, will result from the sessions.

The fine arts program is open to children who "really like art". "They just have to be interested and focussed," she says.

There are four summer sessions, three in July and one in August, and each costs $155. Classes run from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.

Ms Uccello hopes to introduce basic drawing and painting classes for adults in the fall.

A professional artist, she is currently working on two commissioned sculptures and another piece for a hotel in Ottawa.

Different delight

Pizza Delight should really get a new name. The restaurant, which closed last fall, reopened at its former Market Drive location three weeks ago with an expanded menu and a new roadhouse-style decor.

Chicken, ribs and tacos could now be incorporated into its name. In addition to these items, the menu includes chicken wings, salads, chicken rings and other chicken dishes. There is also a drink menu as the restaurant is licensed.

Jeff Carter, promotions director for Pizza Delight Corporation, recently moved to this area with his wife Lisa. The couple decided they could resurrect the Milton outlet and make it a success.

The grand opening was held over the weekend and featured free food for children as well as face painting. The official opening happens tonight (Wednesday) at 9.
