COMMUNITY NOTEBOOK

Back to the '50s: Bishop Reding's parent association is heading back to the '50s this Saturday when the group will present its first dance. Entertainment will be provided by The Class of '59 and there will be prizes for the best '50s' costume, door prizes and spot prizes. Ticket price includes a light meal. The winning ticket for a $5,000 raffle prize will be drawn that night. Tickets are available from association members by calling 878-3336, 878-4368 or 878-1892 at a cost of $20 for singles and $35 per couple. Doors open at 8 p.m.

Playing Tag: The annual tag day fund-raiser for the Leukemia Research Fund is Saturday, June 13. Volunteers will be asking for donations at various locations around town.

English Classes: Daytime classes for secondary students and adults for English as a second language are being offered this summer beginning July 6. The Halton Board of Education provides the course at Ryerson Public School, Burlington and General Wolfe High School, Oakville. An activity fee of $15 will be charged. Call Dorothy Whiteley for more information at 878-1240.

Kealey to Speak: Glen Kealey, known as the town crier, will be in Acton on Friday to speak about government corruption. The event will be held at the Acton Curling Club at 7:30 p.m. The Chromatic Nibblers and musician Jim Haggitt will entertain. Tickets are limited and cost $18 each. To reserve tickets call John Shadbolt, 853-1779 or John Keyworth, 854-0235.

Vaccine Clinics: Halton Regional Health Department offers monthly community immunization clinics the second Tuesday of every month in north Halton. Clinics alternate monthly between Milton and Georgetown. Milton clinics will be at the Health Department office, 251 Main St. on Aug. 11 and every two months after that from 3:30 to 7 p.m. For appointments call 878-7261.

New Art Release: The Harrop Restaurant and Gallery will feature the work of artist Trisha Romance for one week beginning Sunday, June 14. Her new release Nursery Rhymes will be available. The artist will be on hand from 12 noon to 4 p.m. on the final day of the show, Sunday, June 21. Purchases made during the week will also be personalized by the artist. Draw tickets for a framed version of her new release will be sold with proceeds to the Epilepsy Research Fund of Canada.

CMHA Golf Classic: Golf, prizes and funds for the Canadian Mental Health Association will all be part of the 4th annual CMHA Golf Classic at Carlisle Golf and Country Club on Tuesday, June 16. Golf and dinner costs $90 and dinner only costs $45. Charitable receipts are available. To find out more call the Halton branch of CMHA at 845-5044.

What a mouthful

About 375 people made their way to Martin Street School's Spring Fling Saturday afternoon. The event, which included games and a barbecue, raised about $3,000 for the school, say organizers.
