Ninja Turtles team loses tough one

Proceeds from the Milton OPP annual Charity Softball Classic held on Saturday afternoon at Brian Best Park will be forwarded to Halton Women's Place, Milton's emergency shelter for abused women and children.

"The event featured the Milton OPP fathers and sons, better known as the Teenage Milton Ninja Turtles, accepting a challenge from the 1991 Halton Ladies Fastball Champions," said Constable Dave Thomas.

"It was a fun event involving music, hot dogs and door prizes," Thomas added. "The ladies team was just too strong a team to handle. Our Ninja Turtle Mascots even tried to distract them but they were totally unsuccessful."

Thomas made it clear that without the help of M & M Meats, Weston's, Milton Pro Sport, Milton Graphics, Kelsey's Restaurant and the Town of Milton the event would not have been possible.

COWABUNGA, DUDE! Ontario Provincial Police staff sergeant Al Smouter gets the safe signal from umpire Michaelangelo (aka. Mike Shaw) as he slides in safe during Saturday's benefit game at Brian Best Park. Smouter slid under the tag of Janet Tolten, a member of the 1991 Halton Ladies Fastball League champions. The game was organized to benefit Halton Women's Place an emergency shelter for abused women and children. The ladies champs won 11-8.
