T-Ball team gets bamboozled

Despite winning every game easily, team put into consolation round of tourney

The biggest error was committed on the drawing board.

At a recent senior boys t-ball tournament in Guelph, the Milton squad was knocked into the consolation side, despite winning all their games, when the tournament scheduler dropped the ball.

A last minute cancellation by Georgetown put the schedule out of balance in the 12 team tournament. Instead of four divisions of three teams the tournament organizers went with a procedure that determined winners by the highest number of runs scored after three innings.

Milton, despite their 5-0 record in the tournament were forced into the consolation round while London, who Milton had beaten 22-12, advanced to the championship final.

One of Milton's wins was awarded to them as a bye.

Milton parents complained after the tournament that it was difficult to explain to their youngsters why they were unable to play for the title when they had won all their games.

Milton claimed their other games 22-8 and 20-8 over Hamilton's West Mountain and posted a 21-11 consolation win over Byron (London). The scheduling gave Milton no chance to advance.

Home runs were hit by Justin Masterangelo, Chris Wasilkowsky, Mikeael Volpe and Kevin Cooper each with two, while Evan Jeans had one. Paul Duff, Rick Nadalin, Brad Finkbeiner and Bill Gleed had extra base hits. Finkbeiner creamed a grand slam in the tournament all-star game.

Chapman leaves Red Sox for Royals baseball," said Turner. "We're just going to have to pick it up and make do without him."

Chapman, who joined the Red Sox last season is entering his fourth year of post-secondary school in the United States. He is currently on a baseball scholarship in North Carolina.

"I can't blame him really," said Turner.

"There are a number of weak sisters in our league this season. He didn't leave on bad terms, so it's possible he'll return."

The Red Sox play one more league contest before travelling to Sarnia for a tournament on the weekend.

Their next scheduled home game is against Bloor on Sat June 27.
