

Balancing act

Mike Onciel makes an art of flipping burgers at M&M Meats fourth annual Charity Burger Day Saturday while owner Scott Schlotzhauer watches in amazement. About $1,500 in proceeds went to the Canadian Foundation for Ileitis and Colitis.

Pioneer Days are a 'berry' special event

Andrews Scenic Acres invites the public to celebrate Canada 125 during the farm's Pioneer Days June 29 to July 5.

Strawberries came into season just in time for the special week-long celebration which will include horse-drawn wagon and pony rides in addition to the No. 10 Sideroad Farm's regular activities.

The pick-your-own farm boasts a creative playground, giant sand box, animal carral, and tractor-drawn wagon rides.

A portion of sales from Pioneer Days will be donated to redevelopment at Halton Centennial Manor.

"In this special anniversary year, we are delighted to support the seniors at Halton region through this project," said Bert Andrews who owns the farm with his wife Lauraine.

"It is understood that money raised for the Halton Centennial Manor will be used for the extra touches not provided in government funding."
