37 In Memoriams

GILLIS - In loving memory of a dear wife, mother and grandmother, Margaret who passed away July 29, 1989 and a dear son and brother Ernie Jr. who passed away August 13, 1976.

The faces we loved are missing
The voices we loved are still
The hands that did so much for us
Are resting at God's will
Those whom we love go out of sight
But never out of mind,
They are cherished in the hearts
Of those they left behind
May God bless them and keep them.
Loved and missed always, Dad.

Anne & John, Glen & Angela, Brad & Denise, Mike, and grandchildren, Matthew, Erin, Jason, Katie and Lindsay

REMEMBRANCES in the form of donations to The Milton District Hospital Foundation are appreciated.

37 In Memoriams

BEST, BRIAN - In memory of our father who passed away August 1, 1977. Your favorite poem still guides our path thru life.

IF

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you,
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too;
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise,
If you can dream-and not make dreams your master;

If you can think-and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same,
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;
If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breathe a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings-nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much;
If you can fill the unforbearing minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And which is more-you'll be a Man, my son!
