

Quilts back by popular demand for special Ag. museum show

Responding to overwhelming requests for "more" of Country Quilt Fest, the Ontario Agricultural Museum, in co-operation with the Hobby Horse Quilt Shop, is extending this year's unique quilting experience to include 10 days of displays, activities and demonstrations.

From today (August 7) to 16, the museum's rustic Gambrel-Barn will be filled to the rafters with quilts, wall hangings, quilted clothing and quilted table cloths. More than 100 items from quilting guilds, Women's Institute branches and individual quilters from across Ontario will be displayed.

Each day, visitors will have the opportunity to take part in a variety of demonstrations and hands-on activities. There's also the chance to vote on your favourite quilted items as part of the "Viewer's Choice" awards, donated to the quilters by the Hobby Horse Quilt Shop of Georgetown, Ontario.

Cotton Parade

The popular "Cotton Parade" fashion shows will highlight stunning quilted clothing designed in the latest fabrics and styles. Fashion shows run Friday, Saturday,

Sunday, Aug. 7-9 respectively, and Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 15-16.

Other displays include the Ontario Agricultural Museum Quilt Collection which features the best from fairs across Ontario.

Compare a modern kitchen with a historic kitchen using authentic quilted and decorative items.

30 buildings

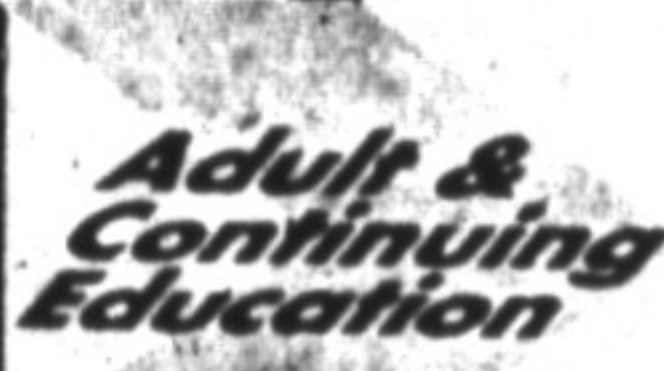

While enjoying this event, discover the Ontario Agricultural Museum's 30 buildings and displays on the 32-hectare site. Costumed interpreters, farm animals, wagon rides are among the attractions.

The museum is open for this event, Friday, Aug. 7, 10 a.m. to 9 p.m., Saturday, Aug. 8 through Sunday, Aug. 16, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Located 5 km west of Milton, the museum can be reached from Highway 401 via exit 320 or 312 north. Just follow the signs.

Admission rates are $3.50 for adults, $1.75 for youths (6-17) and seniors, $8.50 for families. Group rates also apply.
