Up for it

Rob Hans (left) and Justin Lynch leap for a ball in some pre-season volleyball workouts at Milton District High School. Hans and Lynch may not get anything more than practice this year as all three boys volleyball teams are in need of coaches and may have to fold if they aren't found. According to Bryan Camani, MDHS head of phys-ed, the explosion of new sports in the high schools and an aging teaching staff have made it difficult to fill all the coaching spots within the school. Already coaches from the general public have taken up some of the slack and Camani encourages anyone who is interested in volleyball to contact him at 878-2839.

Hobby club rained on

The hobby club's 18th annual Twin 25s were scheduled to run at Flamboro Speedway this weekend but rain put a damper on the second race forcing it to run on Saturday.

In the Twin 25s, 25 cars race 25 laps and then the field is reversed with the first race winner starting last. In the first race Milton's John Fletcher won with Gary Colling and Glenn Colling finishing fourth and fifth. Al Haringa finished 19th due to an accident early in the race which cost him several laps.

At Sauble Speedway on Sunday the hobby racers completed the Gold Cup Series with rain falling just prior to the feature. Fletcher won the consolation race and finished second in the Series with Haringa finishing fourth.
