

Milton works magic at Friendship Tournament

Milton Youth Soccer Club hosted the Optimist sponsored Friendship Tournament last weekend. The Tournament comprised an Under 13 and Under 14 Division and included teams from Guelph, Burlington, Stratford and Waterloo,

Cambridge and Mississauga respectively. Both Milton teams, playing under the "Milton Magic" club name took their respective championships in close final games. In the Under 13 Division, Milton's

Ultra Foods "magic" got off to a bad start in round robin play dropping a 6-1 decision to Guelph. The players were at the field but not in the game. Gareth Savage managed to score Milton's lone goal to avoid the shutout.

Sherriff, has been out of action with a broken leg for several weeks. Tournament duties were capably handled by the backup duo of Chris Noronha and Paul Loader.

Milton into the championship final against Mississauga. In the final game Mississauga won the coin toss but chose to kick into the wind first half thinking they would create a rematch of the previous game.

SEPARATED?

Or divorced? Don't want to spend Christmas alone? Here's what Separated Anonymous Seminar graduates say. Raymond, age 46, "I have a group of open trusting friends I can call at any time". Joe 34, "I found that the support side of the group was by far and away the most rewarding." Larry 63, "It got me out of the rut I was in." Helen 33, "I met people who gave me unconditional acceptance." Dorothy 60, "I again trust people." Angelica 44, "I am not alone." Sellisa 49, "I found deep friendships much more meaningful than business associates."
Successful Separation is easier with the help of friends. Caring input is given by Professionals during Seminar Presentations. Carefully arranged social activities with new trusting friends can help you have a Merry Christmas this year.

In game two Milton fared much better. They built a 2-0 lead on goals by Lucas Redditt and Kerr Smith. Burlington narrowed the margin late in the game but were unable to equalize. In the final round robin the "magic" totally dominated the visitors from Stratford in a fairly easy 3-0 win.

Goal scorers were Redditt, on a penalty shot, Jason Pento and Jeff Seeds. Ultra Foods took second place in the round robin setting up a re-match against the powerful Guelph team. This time around Milton came to play. They kept Guelph off the score sheet through the first half and took an early lead in the second.

Guelph evened it up late in the game forcing overtime. Milton hung tough and early in the second overtime Gareth Savage scored his second of the game to take a lead which held up to the final whistle.

Ultra Foods goalkeeper, Chris

Next, Milton met Cambridge in a defensive struggle with the "Magic" proving to be the better team by virtue of a 1-0 score by Jason Modeiros.

In the final game, against Mississauga, who hold first place in the Peel-Halton League, Milton was overcautious and came out on the wrong side of a 3-0 score. However, Cambridge beat Waterloo which put

The "Magic" thought differently. They held the visitors scoreless through the half and generally controlled the play.

In the second half they turned up the intensity a few notches and were rewarded late in the half when Paul Motley passed up the middle to Gareth Llewellyn who broke two tackles to get clear and smack the winning goal past the keeper.

Milton's goalkeeper, Stephen Penman, played his best soccer of the season through the tournament.

Forwards Jason Cunningham, and Doug Taylor posed several scoring threats and the midfield including Myles Seeds, Kevin Lynes, Adam Redditt and Gavin Kearns played strong two way games.

The teams' greatest strength is the backfield, comprising Derek Rockel, Chris Denich, Mark Taylor and Grant Heffron. Redditt won the most sportsmanlike award for his team selected by coach Clive King.

Win under-14 title

Wynns girls live up to their name

With a name like Wynns, you probably have to be good in soccer and the Wynns Canada under 14 girls lived up to that monicker to capture the round-robin league championship at Thompson Road field recently.

The Wynns team shut out Thorburn Penny to claim the title, despite a determined defensive effort on the latter side's part.

Wynns' speedy winger Jill Shaw put her team ahead midway through the first half by tapping the ball into a wide-open net after Sabrina Coletta and Erin Crisci set up the scoring play. In the face of the disciplined Thorburn Penny defence, the Wynns insurance goal didn't come until late in the second half when Nicole Leroux notched her first of the season from a well-placed corner kick by Alexandra Schrader.

The Wynns' defence, led by Louisa Ferguson at left back, didn't allow a goal throughout the tournament. Julie Deans, Schrader and Jennifer Inglis anchored the backfield, while Dianna Sandeman played her usually strong and roving midfield game. Leroux, Deans and Sabrina Coletta shared the goalkeeping duties, fending off rushes by Monique Doucette, Sandra Taylor and Sheri Sims of Thorburn Penny.

Defensively, Rochelle DiPalma and Jamie-Anne Blanchard hung tough for Thorburn Penny.
