

Vacations Galore!

Our agents tell it best

"Cuba offers good value for a moderate price, an opportunity to experience a much different society from ours and a chance to get off the beaten track in a beautiful country.

We remind first-timers to Cuba that they will not get the sophistication of Acapulco or Hawaii, and they should not expect the highly-developed all-inclusive product that Jamaica provides.

Cuba is a very unique and popular and I have some very nice, well-priced properties to show you. Come see me, please!"

"ST. MARTIN / ST. MAARTEN is the island of all expectations! Surrounded by the turquoise Caribbean waters is a mix of Dutch and French Antilles. There are many excellent resorts. The one I recommend is LE FLAMBOYANT which is a four-star property right on the beach.

A private balcony and fully-equipped kitchen add to their offerings and they are located near the French capital of Marigot. Luxurious boutiques, a unique choice of gourmet restaurants, and evenings filled with Caribbean and disco await you here. Let me show it to you!"

"Sun, sand and the exotic sounds of samba are the key ingredients for Rio de Janeiro. There is no other city in the world to match Rio for such beauty, excitement or entertainment. Canadian Airlines and Varig (Brazil's national carrier) fly there almost daily.

You will find incredible value in the exchange of the dollar to the cruzeiro, and emeralds, shoes and linen clothing are must buys! If you are looking for something different yet with good value, let Rio de Janeiro be your choice and make your holiday something special!"

"Whether you are looking for a weekend getaway or an extended vacation, Florida has something for everyone! There is frequent airline service into most cities, inexpensive car rentals, a wide range of accommodations, and great food at reasonable prices.

Numerous attractions, golf and shopping will keep you occupied when you are not strolling the beach or lounging by the pool. My choice would be a condo on the Gulf Coast, however, let me show you a package to suit your personal needs."
