Trevor Brandt

Milton District High School's cross country runner Robin Ellison led her team to a second-place finish overall in the Bishop Reding Invitational cross-country meet. The Grade 12 student placed 4th in the senior division. Senior football running back Trevor Brandt scored a touchdown in the Mustangs' winning effort against Lord Elgin Friday. The score was 20-7. He did the same the week before in the Mustangs' 14-0 win over Aquinas.

Hurricane Atoms start even

The Halton Hurricane Triple-A minor atoms suffered a 3-1 loss to Chinguacousy Blues last Monday in their season opener at Thompson Arena but bounced back with a decisive 7-1 victory over Chinguacousy on the road last Wednesday.

This year's team includes players from all over Halton. Flamborough gives the team defenceman Carter Trevisani, and two new additions in forwards Chris Alarie and Jeff Brownlee. Coming from Georgetown are rear guards Brydon Butterworth and Michael Knoepfli and winger Matt Walinga. Jarrett Knockle, Dylan Hardy, Mike Austen, Brennan Silk, and Jordan Jeans hail from Milton while Joel Petkoff comes from Acton.

This year's netminders, Nick Pliotas and Jeff Wiggins come from Orton and Orangeville respectively.

Coach Frank Hardy, assistant coach Brad Butterworth, manager Ken Wiggins, and trainer Paul Jeans are expecting a great season from the boys.

Win, loss for bantams

The Halton Hurricane Major Bantam squad came away with a two-game split in recent hockey action, getting beaten 10-3 against Oakville on the road October 4 and coming back to double up Guelph 6-3 at home October 7.

The contest with Oakville was an ugly affair with the home team netting five goals in the second frame and five more in the closing period. Scott Bertoli recorded Halton's only goal with help from Daryl Loader and Trevor Kuhn.

The local boys outshot Guelph 37-9 on route to their impressive victory.

The scoring parade was led by Bertoli who had two goals and two assists. Fabio Pento, Dennis Woods, Jeff Haydar, and Stephan Eagle rounded out the team's scoring while Kuhn, Robin Crawford, Woods and Haydar recorded the assists.

Bantam A's post 2-1-1 record

The Milton Jaycees Bantam "A" hockey squad has opened their season on a positive note, posting a 2-1-1 record in early competition.

In their season opener at home on Oct. 3 against Oakville, the boys earned a 6-3 win thanks to some great goal-tending by Matt Hart and a hat-trick by Doug Frehs. Also scoring were Jason Neal, Tim Ceelen and Jon Ellison. Earning assists were Paul Meehan, Keith Mallette and Ceelen.

Two nights later, the Milton crew staged a three-goal comeback and took a 6-6 draw with Erin on the road. Doug Frehs netted his second hat-trick with single tallies coming from Jason Neal, Ellison and Myles Seeds. Recording the assists were Ceelen, Ellison, Darryl Adamson, Mallette, Meehan, Neal, Trevor Petherick and Seeds.

The boys returned home Oct. 8 and took a 9-3 pounding at the hands of Oakville. Mallette scored twice for Milton while Ceelen chipped in the other goal.

Milton staged yet another comeback to win its second victory of the season against Acton 5-4 on Oct. 10. Ryan Leal scored the tying goal of the game while Mallette banged in the winner. Bryan Cantwell played well in goal.
