Customer Service Representatives

English and Bilingual

These positions representing a major Canadian corporation will be of interest to recent college or university graduates looking for a customer-oriented introduction to the business world.

As the company's customer service rep. you will implement a customer-satisfaction program with current users of the company's products. A three-week training program will be provided.

Your abilities must include an excellent command of the written and spoken word, basic keyboarding and computer skills, good interpersonal skills, and mature business judgement.

This is a salaried position in a pleasant office environment in Oakville for a period of about one year. It should provide excellent experience for a wide range of future marketing and sales careers. Several representatives will need to be fluent in French.
