

Beauty queens

At 20 months, Courtney Crawford is already a beauty. She was named Miss Beauty Queen in her age category at Sunburst Canada's "A Day of Pageantry" Saturday. Proud mom Susan Ross looks on at the Milton Mall event. In the adult category, Holly Johnson, 18 of Campbellville won the title. Kristina Dick of Milton congratulates her friend who advances to the Canadian nationals in July.

Robert Bateman live at the Harrop

Art fans who haven't met Robert Bateman will have the opportunity to do so Sunday, Oct. 25 at the Harrop Gallery.

Featured at the art show and sale will be a selection of more than 200 different Bateman images, gift books, calendars, and the "Retrospective of Limited Editions 1978-1991."

His latest work, Winter Trackers, will also be available.

Mr. Bateman, formerly of this area, will be present at the Steeles Avenue gallery from 2 to 5 p.m.

Spooky music

A Halloween Piano Recital is sure to be a treat at Hugh Foster Hall Thursday night.

The Milton Music Teacher's Association is putting on the show at 7:30 p.m.

Organizers invite music lovers to dress up in their favourite costumes and join in on the fun.

MILTON CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Milton Chamber of Commerce fairwell reception for John Lawrence

The Milton Chamber of Commerce invites its members, citizens of business community and the town to a fairwell reception for John Lawrence in appreciation for his many years of dedicated service.

The reception will be held at Springridge Farm on Thursday, Oct. 29 from 4-6 p.m.

See You There!

Robin's of Campbellville

Robin is happy to say that she has recovered from her surgery and is ready to start back to work. She is looking forward to seeing all her clients and catching up on all the news. She would also like you to know that while away she attended some seminars and she has some great new styles for fall.

So give her a call or stop by soon.
Tuesday - Saturday by appointment.
