The taste of apples gives this pork ragout and interesting twist fit for guests.

RECIPE FILE

It's time to pick your own baking apples

It's apple season and good "pie" and baking apples including Golden Delicious, Crispin (Mutsu), Spartan or Northern Spy are all available beginning in October.

Because they keep their shape when cooked, any of these varieties are ideal for Country Pork Ragout with Apples "N" Thyme — a warm and homey entertaining dish.

Whether you plan to put up pints of apple butter, quarts of sauce or bake pies for family gatherings, why not choose a bright fall day and venture to a local Pick-Your-Own farm for the freshest, most delicious apples growing? Apples will keep well if stored in a cool, dark, well-ventilated place. For your free copy of Foodland Ontario's 1992 Pick-your-Own Guide call 1-800-ONTARIO (668-2746).

Country Pork Ragout With Apples "n" Thyme

A new-style light ragout with a satisfying homey flavour, this dish is just sophisticated enough for entertaining. Serve over broad noodles tossed with sliced green onions.

- 2 1/2 lb (1.25 kg) boneless pork, such as shoulder;
- 1/4 cup (50 ml) all-purpose flour;
- 3 tbsp (45 ml) vegetable oil;
- 2 large onions;
- 3 garlic cloves, crushed;
- 1 cup (250 ml) Ontario sparkling apple cider;
- 2 cups (500 ml) chicken broth or bouillon;
- 1 tsp (5 ml) dried leaf thyme;
- 1/2 tsp (2 ml) dried rosemary;
- 1/4 tsp (1 ml) each ground sage, salt and cayenne pepper;
- 4 to 6 small carrots;
- 4 medium-size Ontario Apples (such as Spy);
- 1 sweet green pepper;

Directions: Cut pork into 2 in. (5 cm) cubes. Place about a third of the meat in bowl or plastic bag; sprinkle with 2 tbsp (25 ml) of the flour. Toss or shake until evenly coated. In large deep saucepan, heat 1 tbsp (15 ml) of the oil-over medium-high heat; cook floured meat, turning often, until lightly browned. Remove to bowl or platter. Repeat with remaining meat, adding 1 tbsp (15 ml) oil if needed. Save any remaining flour.

Meanwhile, coarsely chop onions. Add onions and garlic to oil remaining in pan, adding another 1 tbsp (15 ml) oil if needed. Reduce heat to medium-low and cook, stirring often, until translucent, about 5 min. Sprinkle with any remaining flour; increase heat to medium and cook, stirring, for about 1 min. Add cider, stirring to remove any browned bits from pan bottom; cook, whisking frequently, for about 3 min. or until thickened. Stir in broth, thyme, rosemary, sage, salt and cayenne.

Return pork and any accumulated juices to pan. Increase heat; cover and bring to boil.

Meanwhile, peel carrots, if necessary, and slice lengthwise into strips about 1/3 in. (8 mm) wide. Cut strips into bite-size pieces about 2 in. (5 cm) long. Add to boiling ragout. Decrease heat to low and simmer, covered, stirring often, for 30 min.

Meanwhile, peel, core and slice, apples, into 1/3 in. (8 mm) wide wedges. Add to ragout and continue simmering, covered and stirring often, for 20 min. Seed and cut pepper into 1/2 in. (1 cm) cubes. Add to ragout and continue simmering just until port is fork-tender and apples are "al dente," about 5 more min. Serves 8.
