Senior girls top Halton cross-country runners

The Milton Mustangs cross country team put in excellent results last Wednesday at the Halton Regional Cross Country Meet at Kelso Conservation Area.

The senior girls claimed the Halton crown. Robin Elison continued a fine season by finishing 3rd. She was followed by teammate Lindsay Simpson who came in 5th and Nia Llewellyn who took 8th. Stephanie Campbell placed 11th and Danielle Winter also put in a great performance. Midget girls' runner Sarah Vingoe finished 11th.

The midget boys' team finished a superb race and placed third overall. Scoring for the team were Nathan Cameron (8th), Ryan Harvey (13th), Jason Fish (14th) and Gareth Llewellyn (18th). The junior boys clinched second place. Highlights from the race came from Russ Fleming, Jon Waddington, Nolan Milec and David Bean.

The team competed at today's (Wednesday) G.H.A.C. and hopes to have qualifying teams for the Ontario Federation of School Athletics Association meet next week.

The junior and senior boys volleyball teams faced White Oaks last week and were beat in tight battles. Of the three games, the seniors lost two and just missed winning the match by a few points. They also took part in a tournament at Bishop Reding last Friday where they tied for fourth but lost by consolation.

The senior football squad earned a close victory over Notre Dame 7-6 in front of hometown fans. This was a key game as Milton had to win to hold on to top spot in their division. The junior Mustangs lost a 8-7 decision to Aldershot last Thursday. Aldershot completed a two-point conversion late in the final quarter to claim the win.

The junior and senior girls' basketball teams took tough losses to Bishop Reding. Both teams had leads early on but ended up losing. Their second game of the week saw them crush an overmatched White Oaks crew. The juniors won 53-32 while the seniors scored a 65-18 win.

Week of action nets 10 wins

Bishop Reding Royals posted 10 wins against only two losses in high school athletics last week.

The week opened with the junior and senior boys volleyball teams playing host to crosstown rivals Milton District High School.

The seniors won 15-4, 15-5 while the juniors also took the competition in straight sets, winning 15-10 and 15-9.

The junior and senior girls basketball teams made the short road trip to Milton District. The Reding junior girls earned a 47-43 overtime victory while the seniors toppled Milton District 38-29.

Sabrina Mascarin collected 14 points for the Reding juniors, backed by Charity Crombie's 13. Angela Hrkac was the top scorer for the Reding seniors, with 18 points.

In girls field hockey, the Reding juniors and seniors played host to Burlington's M.M. Robinson and White Oaks Secondary School of Oakville, respectively.

The juniors took a 1-0 lead before the game was interrupted by inclement weather. The second half was played 48 hours later, last Thursday, and Milton hung onto their lead for the win. Melissa Wagner scored, while Jen Catalano recorded the shutout.

In senior action, Claire Langeridge scored the only goal in the White Oaks game to propel Milton to victory. Marisa Barbetta earned the shutout.

The Royals battled to playoff berths thanks to the victories, with the seniors playing Appleby College and the juniors taking on Notre Dame of Oakville.

Amy Shulist won the senior contest for Reding in the second overtime, following a scoreless game against Appleby College.

She scored the only penalty kick goal in five tries per team. Barbetta earned the shutout.

The juniors edged Notre Dame 2-1 as Catherine Hemp scored a pair for the winners.

In subsequent action, the seniors duelled to a scoreless draw through regulation time with M.M. Robinson, but Burlington came up with two overtime goals to Milton's one to win, Sarah Hughes scored for Milton.

In boys volleyball action last Thursday against E.C. Drury, the senior team came up short in two tough sets, losing 15-12 and 15-13. But the Reding juniors carried the day, winning 15-11 and 15-10.

The games served as a warm-up for a Friday tournament, the Bishop Reding Royals Invitational. While the juniors split three games and came out fifth in their pool, the seniors overturned their Thursday setback to claim the title.

The senior Royals defeated Loyola 15-10, 15-13 in the semifinal and rebounded from an opening 16-24 deficit to win the title from Assumption with 15-12, 15-13 victories.

Junior girls cagers one point away from tournament championship

The E.C. Drury Spartan junior girls basketball team advanced to the championship final of their own tournament last week, and lost there by only one point. Midland claimed the crown with a 32-31 win.

Enroute to the title match, Drury beat Burlington Central 31-25 and Forest Heights of Kitchener 30-17.

In league action, the team improved to 3-1 with consecutive victories.

Drury pounded Appleby 64-20 behind the scoring leadership of Shailene Jeffries. Drury then with a fourth-place team finish. Individually, Greg Tonelli grabbed a seventh, Grant Heffron a ninth, Jamie Sutherland claimed 15th and Chris Wisse was 31st.

The senior boys finished fifth as a team. The squad was made up of Paul Sutherland, Mike Belford, Brad Lister and Daniel Bergshoeff.

Individually, Steve Hulme and James Miller turned in Drury's best efforts, with a third and a sixth place finish respectively.
