Block Parents to shine this Halloween

Block Parents have a special role to play Saturday night as trick-or-treaters travel the streets in search of Halloween loot.

This year Halloween is the last day of National Block Parent Week which began October 25.

In Ontario, the organization is using the "See the Light" slogan to shed a little "light" on the importance of high visibility of Block Parent signs displayed in windows.

On Halloween night, Block Parents are asked to ensure the Block Parent sign is displayed so that children who may run into difficulty will know that theirs is a safe home to turn to for help.

During Block Parent Week, the organization acknowledges and thanks the countless number of Block Parents who have "seen the light" in volunteering with the program to help crime prevention in the community.

To become a Block Parent or to request educational Block Parent presentations at schools, please call the local Block Parent program 878-2158 or 878-8568, police department or school to shed a little more light.

Sing Handel along with Choristers

Here's your chance to sing the Hallelujah chorus in a fun way. Milton Choristers are staging a sing-along Messiah at St. Paul's United Church on Tuesday, Nov. 3.

You don't have to be a polished singer to attend, say the organizers. If you appreciate music and can read a score, all the better.

The idea is to sing along with the local community choir as they polish their debut performance with orchestra for November 29. Dr. Patricia Phillips, director, will lead the informal evening in workshop style. It's designed to be an intimate look at how the choir approaches one of Handel's greatest classical pieces. And of course the highlight of the evening will be singing the Hallelujah chorus in the midst of choir members.

Bring your own score of Handel's Messiah and pay $7 at the door or you can rent a score for $10. More than 45 people have already signed up for this special event. The warm-up starts promptly at 7:30 p.m.

For more information contact Andrea Aikenhead, 878-2422.

TEACHING

Teaching is one of the best ways of learning. Spiritual responsibility for one's life rests squarely on our own shoulders. Sharing what we know with others enkindles our soul, much like the nightingale that becomes enchanted by its own melody
