Andrea Mastro

Julie Carr

The Mark of Cain promises to be suspenseful

from SUSPENSE on page 7

Kelly. For the past year, she has helped the Players backstage with props and makeup.

Ms Mastro has been involved with school plays such as The Upside of Down and Hansel and Gretel. Ms Mastro has several years training in theatre and she recently won an award from the Milton Performing Arts for Children. She is eyeing a career in dramatic arts.

After four years with the Players, Julie Carr appears on stage as Molly. Ms Carr started doing costumes for the group and then opted to move to other aspects of theatre. This is her first time on stage in two years.

Her first appearance on stage was in The Dining Room in which she portrayed nine different characters.

Malcolm Smith, who plays Dr. Clifford, makes his second appearance with the Players after portraying a detective in the Players' last production, Design for Murder. He has appeared in numerous productions in Toronto and across southern Ontario, and with Max Haines Weekender Murder Mysteries in Canada and the United States.

Tickets for The Mark of Cain are on sale at the Paper Factory on Main Street. A subscription series is also available for $38 which includes a dinner theatre. Call 875-0629.

Unique sheep at Bronte Creek Park

There have been some new additions to the family at the Bronte Creek Provincial Park children's farm.

There are new sheep. They are a cross between Dorset and the new Canadian Olcott. The Park has acquired 12 of these unusual sheep.

With the renovations to the hen house, they have added to the new quarters some fancy hens — Black

Rose Cone and Black Ostelops. The more common ones are Black Light Sussex along with a proud White Leghorn rooster.

Bronte Creek Provincial Park is

Horses banned from soggy trails

All designated horse riding trails in the north-east sections of Bronte Creek Provincial Park are closed located north of the Queen Elizabeth Highway between Oakville and Burlington just south of Milton. Take exit 109 off the highway and go north on Burloak Drive to the park until further notice. The closure is necessary due to extensive damage to the trails because an extremely wet season, according to park officials.

Once trails reopen all individual and/or groups of riders must stay on the marked riding trails. This will help ensure minimal compaction to the environment state the officials.

For more horse trail riding information, contact the park office by calling (416) 827-6911 weekdays from 8:15 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
