GET INVOLVED IN CONSERVATION

You can make an important contribution to conservation in your community as a member of your local conservation authority.

The Minister of Natural Resources invites residents of the watershed to apply to serve as a provincially appointed member of the Halton Region Conservation Authority. Appointments will be in effect for terms of up to 3 years, starting January 1993.

The 38 conservation authorities in Ontario are agencies created from a partnership between the Province of Ontario and municipalities. They undertake programs to further the conservation, restoration, development and management of certain natural resources within the boundaries of a watershed. Both member municipalities and the province appoint members to authorities.

The Government of Ontario is seeking individuals who have an interest and/or knowledge in the conservation of natural resources, the environment and watershed planning and management. As an authority member, you will be expected to attend regular monthly and special authority meetings, as well as special functions. A per diem allowance is offered.
