shot to the top corner and a tip-in. Brampton returned to Milton on Saturday to shutout the home team 4-0 and sweep the series.

It was then Chinguacousy's turn to take the win from Milton, the visitors, 6-1. It was 3-0 Ching before Milton got on the scoreboard when Beith popped one in during a scramble in front of the net. Jason Pento and Miro Kornicky provided lots of hustle but were unable to score.

Milton then took on visiting Burlington and put on a good show for the hometown fans. Burlington scored three minutes into the first period when a shot from the point was deflected in to open the scoring. Milton's Ryan Marshall hustled and moved the puck well with Kornicky and Jason Pento providing lots of offensive pressure.

With 15 seconds left in the first period, Pento drilled one into the net right from the faceoff to tie the score 1-1. It seemed to be a game of deflections for Milton's goaltender Kyle Garon who played a solid game despite the 5-1 final score.

Close encounter with Orangeville

It was a tough week for the Kar-max novice A rep hockey team with a loss and a tie. Milton was defeated 5-1 in Dundas but earned a 1-1 tie against Orangeville.

Jeffrey Thomas scored Milton's lone marker against Dundas, with a never-say-die effort, assisted by Jamie Howden and Paul Pedulla. Jonathan Sweetland had a good outing in the Milton net, despite the score.

The game against Orangeville in Milton was an end-to-end battle from start to finish. Orangeville took a 1-0 lead in the second period. Milton attacked in waves, only to be turned back by the hot Orangeville goalie.

Finally, with two minutes remaining, Peddilla bulged the twine on a lead pass from Trevor Ford. James Ball brought the Milton crowd to its feet as he broke in with a chance to put it away in the final seconds, but he too was stymied by the tough Orangeville goalie.

Fastest skaters meet Mike Bossy

The Leaver Mushroom Halton Hurricane AAA major bantams didn't collect any medals at the Can-Am Challenge Cup hockey tournament in Lake Placid, New York, last weekend. But they did win something, and a memory that will last a long time.

In a speedskating relay competition, a quartet of Hurricane players bested all comers, outdistancing runner-up Rochester by almost half a rink in the four-lap race. The victory earned them a handshake and a signed picture from Mike Bossy, the NHL Hall of Famer.

Milton's Ian MacIntosh and Flamborough's Dennis Woods, Ben Bombardieri and Robin Crawford formed the relay teams. They all won satin jackets to go with the experience of meeting Bossy.

The tournament games, played against the scenic mountain backdrop where both the 1932 and 1980 Winter Olympics were held, saw the Hurricanes bow out to the Toronto East Enders in the bronze medal game by a 5-3 decision.

The Hurricanes couldn't overcome the Toronto goalie nor a steady rash of penalties.

The Halton squad posted a 3-1 record in the preliminary round, beating the Mississauga Terriers 9-2, shutting out the Humber Valley Sharks 5-0 and edging the East Enders 5-4. Halton's lone loss in the opening round was a 5-2 defeat at the hands of the New York Apple Core.

Sockets play .500 hockey

The P.L. Robertson novice Sockets played .500 hockey last week with a home ice 5-1 victory over Brampton, a 5-2 loss in Burlington and a 2-2 tie in Ancaster.

Thomas Houlihan starred in the Brampton victory as he fired a hat trick to lead the winners. Caleb Moffat, playing on the same line, collected three assists. Evan Jeans and Kyle Kack scored the other Milton goals. Kack's was on a shot from centre ice. Andrew Kirkland and Zach Cosby assisted on Jeans' goal.

Milton suffered only their second loss of the year against Burlington. The Sockets fell behind 2-0 in the first minute of the game and never recovered.

Milton got on the scoresheet late in the second period when Houlihan notched one on a breakaway after a crisp pass from Moffat.

Down 5-1 in the third period, Kirkland got one back by scoring on a wraparound after taking a pass from Jeans.

The tie in Ancaster was a hard-fought game in which Milton jumped out to an early 2-0 lead. Moffat opened the scoring by knocking in his own rebound, assisted by Houlihan. Ricky Nadalin scored Milton's second, breaking down right wing and rifling a shot home.

Ancaster fought back and finally tied the game on a shot that Milton goalie Billy Glead appeared to save. However, the referee ruled it a goal.

Darryl Langstone, Ryan Haydar and Justin Mastrangelo played well along the blue line for Milton.

Rocco on the powerplay.

Mike Murray drove home a slap shot five minutes later, again on the powerplay and John Dasso and Pat Henneberry recorded the other two goals. Picking up assists were Sean Lindsay, Daner Finn, Travis Riggan, Jason Ritchie and Jason Stevenson.

Milton played disciplined hockey in the final frame, knowing Brampton's power on offence could easily end their hopes of a win at any time.

Glassford came with some big saves and the defence, led by Murray and Rocco, put in a strong performance.

Milton netted three more goals in the final frame including Jason Ritchie's empty net goal in the last three seconds and earned their eighth win of the season.

Also scoring for Milton in the third period were Henneberry and Riggan, who each had three points on the night while Ritchie, Stevenson, Finn and Murray picked up assists.

In earlier action last week, Glassford came up with some big stops while Jason Ritchie, who scored five goals including a hat-trick against Burlington. Riggan came away with three other goals last week and Seymour scored three points also.

Milton travels to Royal York tonight to take on the Rangers and put their six game win streak at home on the line Friday against the Rangers. Saturday evening they battle the Raiders in Georgetown.
