

Annual Santa Claus Parade is looking for sponsorship

Santa Claus is coming to town Sunday with support from the community.

The annual Christmas parade which travels through downtown relies on funding from donations, says Paddy Townson an organizer of the event.

She is joined by 10 other volunteers on the Milton Santa Claus Parade committee which makes it all happen.

The parade costs $14,000 to organize, according to Mrs. Townson. While the Town puts four per cent toward expenses, the rest comes from generous donations from the community.

Parade donation forms are available at The Champion office, Town Hall, Milton Leisure Centre and Milton Public Library, or write a cheque payable to Milton Santa Claus Parade 1992 and send to Robert Pell, treasurer, 6552 First Line, Milton, Ont., L9T 2X5.

Along with the parade, the annual best window display contest is being held. The downtown business with the best store window will win a plaque.
