For the second year in a row the senior girls Royals have finished atop their basketball league with a 9-0 record. A strong second half moved the Royals to a smashing 58-38 win over Queen Elizabeth Park.

Boys wrap up volleyball season in style

Two successful volleyball seasons came to an end this week with the junior and senior boys making a clean sweep in the quarter finals.

The juniors started with a close 12-15 loss to a strong St. Thomas Aquinas team but went on to win the next two games 15-8 and 15-12 advancing them to the semi-finals. The seniors lost their second game to Queen Elizabeth Park 11-15 after winning the first 15-10 and coming back in the third with a score of 15-7.

After such great play last Tuesday, the junior boys went down to defeat at the hands of Lord Nelson and the added another tie to their pre-season record in exhibition play against Milton District.

In hockey action the Spartans

The exhibition game ended 2-2 and put Drury's record at 1 win, 1 loss and 2 ties. Mark Ollerenshaw opened the scoring for Drury in the second period assisted by Dave Jelly. Barry Jivcoff drove in the second goal with the assist going to Steve Hulme.

With a record of 8-1, the junior girls basketball team have taken first spot in their division. Last Tuesday the lady Spartans beat Blakeclock 41-21 with leading scorers Jayne Currie with 15 points and runner-up Shailene Jeffrey with 10 points. The play-offs look promising for this powerful team.

Senior girls advance to Halton basketball finals

The senior girls Mustangs will advance to the Halton basketball finals in second place after taking just three losses in league play to Bishop Reding and St. Thomas Aquinas.

The loss to Aquinas came in the last game of regular season play which ended a close 52-50. After the team's slow start, Alicia Gunn accumulated 30 points, in part by capitalizing on rebounds. Point guard, Paula Ashby was injured in the match but should be back on the court for the finals.

Last weekend the girls faced the number one ranked team in the province at Peterborough. As they enter the finals, coach Bryan Camani explains: "If we play the way we are capable of playing, we have great potential."

For the junior girls, Briar and Rene Ross dominated the court in their defensive play and Kelly Douglas led with 20 points in a 41-30 loss to Loyola last Tuesday.

That game ended a season their Volleyball has ended for this year as junior boys took a loss to Oakville Trafalgar last Tuesday. It was a hard series of matches with Milton losing 15-7 and 17-15 in the second game.

McDonalds Athletes of the Week

Bishop Reding Royals junior girls basketball team member Theresa Charron is this week's outstanding athlete after contributing 14 points in the 31-23 victory over T. A. Blakeclock in quarter-final action.

Reding Royal Ryan Leal was an instrumental player with the school's midget boys volleyball team, putting in good performances at the Halton midget tournament at Oakville Trafalgar High School in action Friday.
