Life-long resident has big 90th birthday bash

A large number of long-time friends, neighbours and family gathered Sunday at the Royal Canadian Legion on Charles Street to extend good wishes to Clara Price on her 90th birthday.

Mrs. Price is the former Clara Patterson. She has resided all her life in the Milton area, and was a student of Bruce Street School.

Milton Mayor Gord Krantz attended the party and made several presentations.

He also led in the singing of Happy Birthday.

Group photos of Clara and her family will be a treasured memory of the happy day. Mrs. Price thanked her friends for making her day so pleasant.

Everyone present enjoyed lunch, tea, and birthday cake. The happy party was hosted by her family with son Earl as master of ceremonies for the program.

Guests attended from Georgetown, Markham, Wingham, Grimsby, Burlington, Oakville, as well as Milton.

We wish her many more special days. Her birthday was Wednesday.
