

Mohawk wraps up this weekend

The Mohawk Gold Cup which annually attracts a top-flight field of horses will headline the final weekend of the Campbellville racetrack's autumn program.

Breeders Crown champion Kingsbridge and late-blooming sensation Staying Together are expected to lead the chase for the $50,000 purse this Sunday. On the same card are the finals of the Count B Series for juvenile colt pacers and the General Brock series for three-year old trotters. Saturday evening features the finals of the Robert Stewart Stakes for two-year old filly pacers and trotters.

Armbr Luxury, one of North America's premier two-year-old filly trotters was her usual determined self in turning aside six rivals in the $15,000 elimination of the Robert Stewart Stake on November 28. Dave Wall was in the sulky for Hornby owner John Grant and trainer Scott McEneny. The Dream of Glory miss has earned a healthy $236,000 and she'll try to add to that sum in Saturday's $58,700 championship.

"She's a little warrior," praised Wall. "Her next start will give her 20 for the year."

The filly pacers required two eliminations with the top four from each advancing to this Saturday's $77,500 final.

Red hot Towners Image extended her unbeaten streak to five with a handy 1:57.2 score for reinsman Tim Twaddle.

"Outstanding," was Twaddle's description of Towners Image. "She's always shown a lot of ability but now she's stronger and faster — a thrill to drive."

John Burns trains the season winner of $162,475 for his partners Keith Waples and Martwest Racing Stable of Mississauga.

The other elimination saw Simcha draw off to a comfortable three length win in a time of 1:57.3 for Tony Kerwood. It was the fourth season win for the Phil Coole trainee who pushed her bankroll to more than $121,000 for owners Tony Del-Monte, Don Murray, Chico Ser-naglia and Gabe Piscelli.
