

If I had one Christmas wish...

Infinity

It was Christmas Eve and I was sitting on the couch and I saw a shooting star so I wished for infinity wishes. Then suddenly, the star grew hands and feet and said that my wish was granted.

That night as I was sleeping I was dreaming and wishing all night long. Then I went downstairs and Christmas morning was here. A news flash came on the air saying that suddenly all wars around the world was vanished. It was then I knew what I visioned on my dreams.

Mike Bonin
Grade 7, Holy Rosary

Come again

I want to go and see Santa. This is a very special wish of mine. I sent him a letter, and on Christmas Eve Santa came to pick me up. He really liked the idea of coming. When we got to the North Pole there were tons and tons of toys. I got to pick one toy and help to deliver the presents with Santa. When I got home Santa said come back next year. Merry Christmas!

Lindsey Brown
Grade 3, Robert Baldwin

Blue Jay fever

I would ask for $17.50 seats at one of the Blue Jay games and it would be my choice of what game. That way I could go to any game I liked. I really like the Blue Jays.

I have tons of Blue Jay cards and posters. I have been to only one game. It was against the Kansas City Royals. We had $13.50 seats.

The Jays won 6-4. I was glad the Blue Jays won. That is the wish I would like.

P.S. Caley French was with me.
John Landsborough
Grade 4, Brookville

Teddy bear

Once upon a time there was a little girl. Her name was Amy. She wanted a teddy bear for Christmas. Amy had one teddy bear named Bendix.

One day Amy wrote her letter to Santa and left it on the table for Santa. That night her dog Spot got a hold of it and ripped into little pieces. Bendix tried to put the letter together but he couldn't. So he got dressed and went outside to go to the toy shop. He had a great time trying to get there.

When he was there he tried to sneak up the elevator but somebody saw him and put him on the highest shelf on a jack-in-the-box.

Bendix tried to get down but his foot hit the winder and the jack-in-the-box flung open and Bendix went flying.

He landed on the bear shelf. He said, "This is where I belong." Bendix said, "But you have to come." So Bendix started to drag the teddy to the door but he broke loose from Bendix arms and ran off.

A voice came on the speaker it said, "This toy store will be closing in one minute." "Come on teddy," said Bendix. The teddy came around the corner. Bendix shouted "Come on," so they ran down the stairs, right through the door.

They were at the door when a snowplow came it picked the teddy up and dumped it in a snowdrift. Bendix went into the house sadly.

In the morning Amy and her brother ran down the stairs. Amy's brother opened his presents. Just what I wanted. A toy backhoe. Amy opened her present. Bendix held his breath. Just what I wanted a teddy bear. Amy put her bear under the tree and Bendix went and asked him how he did it. It's magic said the teddy bear.

Katy Stokes
Grade 4, Brookville

Feed the poor

A long time ago there was a boy named Deion Wilson and his sister Stacy Wilson. It was Dec. 20, Stacy put 20 toys on her Christmas list; but on the other had Deion only had 10 toys on his list. He also wants peace in the world and no hunger either. The next day he put eight cans of food under the tree at his school. The food goes to the poor. He was glad of what he had done. The next day he brought two pair of clothes. On Christmas Day he got the 10 toys he wanted but Stacy only got five toys that she wanted.

Mark Grimwood
Grade 4, Brookville

Different from them all

If I had one Christmas wish,
I'll tell you what it would be,
It wouldn't be for a puppy dog,
Or even a tall green tree.
It wouldn't want a big red bike, a truck a game or doll,
My wish would be different,
Different from them all.
I would wish for all the kids around our whole wide world,
To have a very merry Christmas,
Every boy and girl,
With lots of love from everyone each child would get a lot,
And one more thing in my wish,
Something that can't be bought,
Can you guess what it would be,
My wish with a big red bow,
Just one day everywhere,
My wish would be for snow,
Crystal flakes falling down,
So everyone can see,
For every child on Christmas Day,
Loves snow like you and me!

Stefanie McCann
Grade 7, Holy Rosary

No wars

No wars and nobody had any guns. So no one would get hurt. I would go see Santa and his elves and make an igloo. I would see his reindeer and watch them fly. I wish Christmas were here every day but it's too much food and money so it's not too bad for once a year.

Jastine Stanleg
Grade 3, Brookville

Wow!

I wish I had as many wishes as I wanted. All of a sudden I heard a voice say your wish has been granted. I said wow then went to bed.

I couldn't get to sleep and I said I wish I was asleep. BOOM. I was asleep.

Christmas morning came and my Dad was working. I said I wish my Dad was home. BOOM. The doorbell rang and my Dad was home. I got a phone call saying a war has just started. I said I wish the war was over. BOOM. The war was over and I was famous.

Marcus Wolkowski
Grade 7, Holy Rosary

Peace in the world

There it is Christmas Eve and I'm lying in my bed, thinking of all the things I could get for Christmas this year.

I walked downstairs and looked at the Christmas tree thinking again what I could possibly want.

I walked in the kitchen and looked at my mother wrapping a big Christmas present that said my name on it.

Than I thought to myself the one and only wish I would want is peace in the world. And that's what I finally wished for.

Angie Leone
Grade 7, Holy Rosary

Cookies and milk

Our family to have a Christmas at our house for the holidays. I would put the cookies and milk out for Santa and leave a present for him. The card would say Dear Santa: I hope you have a good trip! From Ashley, Danielle, Jessica and Jacob, Mom and Dad. We would put signs up so you know where you are going!

Ashley Meitz
Grade 3, Robert Baldwin

Doll and bell

A Barbie doll and a sleigh bell. I hope Santa got my letter.

Ashley Lane
Grade 3, Brookville

from left to right; Brian, Mark, Pat, and Raz

Season's Greetings

A heartfelt thank you to all of our customers who make our success possible. May the many blessings of the season visit you and your family this Christmas. From all of us at:

AVANTI Auto Tech

909 Nipissing Rd.

878-2952