

If I had one Christmas wish...

CDS—The Canadian Champion, Wednesday, December 23, 1992

Peace on earth

Peace on earth and for all the children to have a merry, merry Christmas. That all rich and poor would share in a good Christmas dinner and spread the love to one another all year through. If we stick together I know this wish would come true. So let's join together and spread your Christmas cheer.

Everyone gets gifts

All the children big and small, short and tall, black and white, would get at least one Christmas present this and next year and all the years after.

Big house

The biggest house in the world. So when she said that she had the biggest house in the world and her friends said how did you get a big house. And then she said I just said I wished I had the biggest house in the world.

Clean up the planet

Go to the North Pole and help make toys for the people that do not get toys for Christmas like the poor people in Africa. I would like to give them food. I would like to give them blankets and clothes to put on and keep them warm. I would like to help clean up the planet.

We love Canada.

Get rich

Rich so I can give lots of money to the poor people. And so I could buy presents for the orphans. I could buy presents for everyone in my family plus some other families. I could buy a new school and lots of books for the library, and balls and basketball nets for the gym. A tennis court and the poor people could use the school for free.

Ride with Santa

A ride in a sleigh with Santa and his nine reindeer. Then I would tell all my friends about what to have for a Christmas wish.

Then they would tell their friends. I would tell my Mom and Dad about my ride with Santa and his nine reindeer.

Love one another

That the world would be peaceful and nice, never be war and no one would ever die. There would be no fighting and therefore nobody would get hurt.

My wish is so simple that I know it could come true if only we all come together and love one another all year through.

Greg New
Grade 7, Holy Rosary

The claw

One day when I woke up my Dad and Mom and my brother and sister had all ate their breakfast except me so I sat down and ate breakfast. My brother was playing with his cars and my Mom was sewing a skirt. And my Dad was washing the dishes and I wanted to play with the claw. But I didn't have the claw but if I only had one it would be great.

Health and homes

Some people in the world aren't as fortunate as me. My wish would be to give them all peace, food, health, homes and clothes. I am happy because at our church we had adopted a child who lives in poor country. After our church adopted her we began to receive report cards and thank you letters. I feel happy because I know that I am helping a child. Since it is Christmas I feel that more people should pitch in and help support poor people around the world.

Grade 4, Brookville

Everybody's happy

Everybody would be happy. If I had one more wish it would be that there was peace in the world.

Laura Borcsok
Grade 2, Holy Rosary

Be a dinosaur

A dinosaur. Maybe I would wish for the world and I would be the queen of the world. I would wish for peace on earth, a million dollars, buy presents for all the people in the world, the biggest house and invite everyone over.

But I don't have one wish. I have to go to sleep because St. Nick will soon be here.

A THOUGHT FOR TODAY
A customer is the most important part of any business. A Customer is not dependent on us. We are dependent on him. A customer is not an interruption of our work but the purpose of it. A customer does us a favour when he comes in. We aren't doing him a favour by waiting on him. A customer is part of our business — not an outsider. A customer is not just money in the cash register. He is a human being with feelings, like our own. A customer is a person who comes to us with needs and wants. It is our job to fill them. A customer deserves the most courteous attention we can give. He is the life-blood of this and every business. Without him we would have to close our doors.
