A DOWNTOWN MILTON WEEKLY REPORT ON COMMUNITY NEWS, VIEWS & HAPPENINGS

HARRIS STATIONERY

182 MAIN ST.

878-6962

Harris Stationery has been a family business in Downtown Milton for 40 years. It seems appropriate that they were named by the Chamber of Commerce as its Business of the Week on the final week of December, which marked the dawn of their 40th year in business.

The store which provides everything from greeting cards to a wide array of office supplies, was founded in 1953 by Ron Harris. Mr. Harris was a prominent member of the Milton Community serving as Town Councillor and Deputy Reeve, and who once ran for Mayor of Milton, against Brian Best.

One of Downtown Milton's most established businesses Harris Stationery was originally located at 162 Main Street where Hair Associates presently stands. Mr. Harris moved the business to 182 Main Street in 1957 where it is currently situated.

However at the time it was only an eighth of its present size. Originally Harris shared the building with Ramshaw Insurance. Later when this business closed, the stationery store took over the other half of the building and progressively expanded to the size it is today.

Ron Harris' daughter Zella and son in-law B.A. Bonin purchased the business from Mr. Harris in 1961. B.A. and Ron worked the store during the sixties. In 1970 Zella shared operations with her husband B.A. and this arrangement continued until 1988. In 1988 Zella and B.A.'s son Steve took over and continues to run the stationery store with his father.

Among the many services Harris Stationery performs is a Bell Telephone Collection Agency which has been part of the store since the mid 1950s.

Over the past 40 years the lives of the Harris and Bonin families have revolved around this business.

As a result, a strong affection and recognition of Downtown Milton as the heart of this community has developed.

Best wishes for another happy and successful 40 years is extended to the staff at Harris Stationery from all their friends in Downtown Milton.
