

Assault suspect attempts suicide in Milton jail cell

A Milton man arrested on assault charges tried to hang himself in a jail cell at the local Halton police station Monday afternoon. The McNabb Crescent resident used a string from the waist of his track pants in an attempt to commit suicide at Milton's 12 Division.

The suspect, who was wearing track pants under his jeans, was taken to Milton District Hospital. He suffered no injuries, police said.

The man, charged in connection with a domestic assault on a woman and a youth earlier in the day, was held in custody for a bail hearing yesterday.

Police were called to a McNabb Crescent home at 4:30 p.m. after a 42-year-old woman reported that her common-law husband struck her in the face and threatened her 17-year-old daughter.

The man had been drinking and an argument started, police said.

A 37-year-old man faces two counts of assault and a breach of probation charge.

Hunters under probe

Halton police are investigating complaints from Moffat residents that deer hunters have been hunting out of season in the area.

The complaints came from residents near First Line West and No. 10 Sideroad where hunting blinds — mounds of grain, apples, and corn used to attract deer — were built in a wooded area.

The Ministry of Natural Resources is also involved in the investigation, police said.

Man arrested in car crash

A Bousfield Crescent man faces charges after a car crashed into a lamp post, cable equipment, and a mail box on Joyce Boulevard early Saturday morning.

The vehicle was travelling westbound on Joyce Boulevard at 6 a.m. when it went out of control at McNabb Crescent causing $2,000 damage to property. After the crash, the car continued west on Joyce Boulevard.

Using car parts left at the scene as clues, police arrested a suspect two hours later.

A 25-year-old man faces four charges under the Highway Traffic Act including careless driving and driving without a licence.

Waitress charged with theft

A former waitress at the Bayrischer-Hof Restaurant was charged Thursday in connection with the theft of $790.

The money recently went missing from the cash register at the Steeles Avenue eatery.

A 34-year-old Steeles Avenue woman faces a theft charge.

Scale stolen

An electronic scale worth $800 was stolen from E.C. Drury High School sometime during January 7 and 8.

Police believe the scale, which was in the science room, was removed after class.

Gate house damaged

Thieves targeted the main gate house at Kelso Conservation Area overnight Sunday when they tried to kick in the door.

The culprits were unsuccessful in gaining access to the facility, but caused $200 damage.
