Reding ladies advance in badminton doubles

Queen Elizabeth Park took home the senior Halton badminton championship title last Thursday however Jackie Shaw and Carla Johnston, representing the host school, Bishop Reding, took second in the ladies doubles and advance to the Halton open.

Milton District's Paula Ashby was first in ladies singles followed by E. C. Drury's Jen Cheevers. James Rollinson of MDHS was fourth in the men's singles and Drury's men's doubles team of Brad Lister and Paul Sutherland was second. Bishop Reding's ladies were second to the doubles entry of Julie Nayler and Three members of Reding's senior boys' basketball squad have been competing with the Halton all-star team during the past two weeks. Jesse Ogden was named to the team as a forward and Carlo Zoffranieri and Todd Fuller qualified as guards.

Under the guidance of coach Chris Dooley, the team played four games against the area's best teams, winning two and losing two. The losses were by less than three points.

Ogden was named MVP of the Star Wars tournament and won the three-point shooting contest at Hamilton's Attic Classic. Ogden electrified the crowds with his clutch shooting in both tournaments and certainly proved worthy of his position with the team.

Starting point guard, Fuller, displayed his skills throughout the tournaments and is quickly becoming known for his defensive and ball handling skills. Zoffranieri shared duties with Fuller and together they showed why they rank among the best defensive players and guards in the area.

Drury successful on badminton court

Drury's spring teams are fired up for the upcoming competitive season.

Although all of our spring teams are in full swing, few, with the exception of badminton, have begun their official season but we look forward to their success.

Keeping with a winning tradition, this year's badminton team is no exception. After great success individually and as a team at the VOLPE division finals, the Spartans went on to snag second at the Halton Closed held at Drury last week.

Congratulations on a great team effort and especially to Julie Naylard and Rena Massey who snagged a first in ladies doubles, Jenn
