

Firsts for rec gymnasts at inter-club meet Sunday

In an impressive display of ability at total of 29 recreational gymnasts with Milton Springers Gymnastics Club earned at least one first place ribbon at Sunday's inter-club meet.

Coach Janet Campbell said she was impressed by the quality of routines "which seem to get better every year".

Girls from age 6 to 12 years competed in level one to five Sunday morning at the Nipissing Road gym.

At the senior advanced recreation meet in Orangeville, Kristine Gearin was the sole Springer, placing eighth on beam and third on bars for eighth all-around.

SPRINGERS' NOTES

Gymnasts head to provincials

Three competitors from Milton Springers Gymnastic Club were named to the Central Region Team.

Taking part in a meet in Guelph, Fiona Silcock, in the pre-novice 1 division, placed fifth on vault and fourth on floor to place seventh overall. Combined with the two other meets, she ranked fifth for the season and was named to the team.

Shawna Turner and Vicki Chlisczyk also were named to the team. Ms Turner will go on to the provincial championships in May in Sault Ste Marie, in the novice 2 division.

ATHLETES OF THE WEEK

Sarah Samuelson (left) won three 1st ribbons and one 2nd ribbon, while Kira Metselaar won one 1st and three 2nds ribbons at the Milton Springers Gymnastics Club recreational meet held Sunday morning.
