

Hundreds to celebrate Eastern Star's 40th

Order of the Eastern Star members will celebrate 40 years in Halton Saturday.

About 300 people from across Ontario are expected to attend the 5:30 p.m. gathering at the E.C. Drury School for the Deaf.

People from chapters as far as North Bay and Sault St. Marie are coming to town for the celebration, which includes dinner and reminiscing, said Marjorie McPhail of Milton, a founding member of the Halton organization.

Patron Addison Woodley of Milton and the late Matron Ida Jarvis are other founding members, she said.

Also on hand at the gathering will be Grand Marshall John Swinton and District Deputy Evelyn Gable.

The organization has played a great role in the community and continues to provide service by helping needy families and sponsoring people seeking religious education.

Golf for your mental health

Golfers who usually feel good out on the course could feel even better if they're golfing for charity.

The fifth annual Canadian Mental Health Association Golf Classic set for June 24 at Carlisle Golf and Country Club is being called a "feel good" event by organizers.

The cost is $90 and golfers receive a charitable receipt for a portion of the fee. A special group rate of $80 per person is available when a four-some registers and dinner only tickets are also available.

Held for the second year at the Carlisle club, the 1993 version will feature a comedian from Yuk Yuks who will entertain at the dinner following the tournament.

The first-class course is set in rolling terrain amidst 3,000 mature pine trees which line the 18 bent grass fairways. Four large ponds are strategically placed to test golfers' skill and more than 65 Ohio sand-filled bunkers add to the beauty and challenge of the championship par 72 course. The facility also features a large driving range and two practice greens.
