Witnesses wanted in disturbance at kids' ballgame at Rotary Park

Charges followed complaints to police Thursday night after two men shouted obscenities at a Rotary Park T-ball game.

The men were sitting on a railway bridge behind the ball diamond drinking beer and yelling at the young players, Halton police said.

Offended spectators at the game contacted police who arrived at the scene. Two local men, aged 19 and 21, were charged with causing a disturbance. They also face a liquor charge.

Anyone who witnessed the disturbance is asked to contact Constable Clive Hubbard at Milton's 12 Division, 878-5511.

Impaired charges

Police stopped a 1990 Oldsmobile on Ontario Street, north of Main Street East, early Friday after an officer saw it cross the centre line of the road twice. A 33-year-old Ontario Street North man was charged with two impaired driving-related offences.

A 23-year-old driver was charged the same night after police on patrol spotted a vehicle fishtailing on a gravel road near Townline, south of No. 15 Sideroad.

Sunday, a vehicle was found with its engine running in a Twiss and Derry road ditch. A 22-year-old Stoney Creek man faces a charge of having care and control of a vehicle while impaired.

POLICE BLOTTER

Stolen vehicle found

A Honda Accord taken from an Ontario Street apartment complex parking lot was recovered by Metro police on Finch Avenue in North York Friday.

The grey car, owned by a Milton man, was stolen either late Thursday or early Friday. It was found abandoned just before 7 p.m. with damage to the steering column and glove box.

Police are investigating.

Bikes missing

Several mountain bikes have been reported stolen from the area.

A white bicycle owned by a Milton woman was taken from behind a Childs Drive park between 5 and 10 p.m. Thursday. Also that night, a similar blue bike was reported missing from the garage of a Childs Drive home.

Meanwhile, a black vehicle was stolen from a Robert Street backyard Sunday.

Theft from auto

A black leather briefcase containing electronic equipment was stolen in a car break-in Friday afternoon.

The vehicle, owned by a Waterloo man, was parked on Guelph Line near No. 10 Sideroad.

The culprit smashed the passenger-side rear window of the white 1990 Chevrolet Lumina and took the briefcase valued at $1,148 including its contents.

A five-inch television and calculator were inside the case.

Shoplifters caught

Two people face theft charges in connection with shoplifting at Zellers.

A 48-year-old Sunnyvale Crescent woman was arrested Wednesday morning after a consumer put a calculator in her shopping bag and left the store without paying.

A 17-year-old Milton youth was charged Thursday after a shopper unwrapped 12 toy cars from their packages, put them in his pocket, and exited the store via the mall entrance.

Thieves target tires

Culprits cut through a wire fence over the weekend to steal 12 tires from two trucks at Kingsley Industrial on Nipissing Road.

Police believe the thieves took the tires to a truck on a nearby property and fled the area.
