

McDonalds Athletes of the Week

A tip of the old softball cap goes to hard-throwing pitcher for Milton District High School, Cathy Rayner. The Mustangs are unbeaten in regular season play and Cathy's strong performance on the mound is a big part of their success.

David Edgar has made an impressive debut as a member of Milton District High School's Mustang baseball team. This newcomer from Alberta was almost flawless on the mound against Loyola last Thursday, pitching four scoreless innings. He surrendered only one single, struck out five batters and allowed a walk in facing the minimum 12 batters.

Runners catch double gold at Halton track and field meet

Rob Wands and Mike Stefanac each earned two gold medals over two days of the Halton track and field meet last Tuesday and Friday for Bishop Reding.

Wands was the top junior in the 200 and 300 metre events while Stefanac broke the ribbon in the 1,500 and 3,000 metre midget races. Another gold medal performance was put in by Cam Harrington in the senior shot put.

Second place ribbons went to: Gord Kenny, junior 800 and 1,500 metre; Rory Sneyd, senior 1,500 and 3,000 metre; Colin Primok, junior 100 and 200 metre; Frank Lemut, senior high jump; Paul Sewitt, senior triple jump; Myles Donaldson, Colin Primok, Sean Johns and Mark Jackson, junior boys 4 X 100 metre relay; Todd Fuller, open steeplechase.

In fourth place were: Matt Thompson, open steeplechase; Graham Darling, midget 3,000 metre; Andrea Rose, junior high jump. Rose also qualified to compete in the junior 300 metre hurdles at the Golden Horseshoe Athletic Conference (GHAC) meet.

Fifth place finishers were: Jackie Shaw, senior 1,500 metre; Patrick Bourke, midget 300 metre hurdles; Caren Brown, junior discus.

Other athletes who qualified for GHAC are: Sean Deoni, Erin Wrigglesworth, Amy Mohr, Zsuzsa Fedacek, Donnie MacLeod and Doug Enright. In addition to qualifying many athletes for the next round, Royals set seven new school records.

□□□ Bishop Reding hosted the second annual Royal Invitational senior girls soccer tournament Friday with the home team winning one and losing two.

M. M. Robinson was the only entry the Royals managed to defeat. Katherine Kemp scored Reding's only goal and Linda Lipari earned the shut-out in the 1-0 affair.

The Royals lost the second game in a penalty kick shoot-out after the game ended in a 0-0 deadlock with White Oaks. The final score was 3-2 for Oakville.

Reding suffered their last defeat at the hands of the eventual tournament winners, Assumption. Nicole Chuchmach scored Reding's only goal in the 3-1 game.

The boys junior soccer team defeated T. A. Blakelock 2-1 last Thursday with goals scored by Joel Poloni and Jason Lescak. The junior girls tied with Loyola 1-1 in their match last week. Both teams now head into the playoffs. The senior girls were defeated by Loyola last Tuesday, 2-1. Katherine Kemp was the lone goal scorer for the Royals.

Cheerleaders shine at Wonderland

Milton District High School's Mustang cheerleaders ended their season with a first place win at Canada's Wonderland in a weekend tournament.

The ladies varsity softball team has won all six of their league games to begin an excellent season. The only losses occurred in pre-season exhibition play and at a tournament.

The injury plagued junior girls soccer team won't be heading to the finals after a difficult season. The
