Mosquitos earn tourney title

The minor mosquito boys rep team came home champions from a weekend tournament in London two weeks ago.

The boys captured the Oakridge Mosquito Baseball Tournament win even though they drew a tough spot in the schedule, playing three games on their first day.

The action began with an easy 9-2 win over St. Catharines, followed by an 11-2 victory over London's EEBA team. Milton took the lead in the third game and never looked back, ending the game 10-5 over Oakridge, the hosts.

Batters for Dufferin were Matt Craig, Ashley Leskun, Josh Chapman, Mike Grabauskas, James Mulligan, Luke Bruner and Jeff Johnston.

Winning pitcher was Sean Mahoney who threw six strikeouts, allowed zero runs on two hits.

On the strength of three wins, Milton entered semi-final play against London's Byron team. Milton held their competition to two runs, winning with five runs.

Before the first inning was over, Milton already had scored six runs against the Brampton Braves in the final and by the end of the seventh the final score was 14-2. The boys had pulled off a decisive championship win.
