

Summer Bible clubs for kids

Grace Baptist Church will host neighbourhood bible clubs for a week this month from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m.

The clubs, held from July 26 to 30 in the schoolyard of E.W. Foster on Coxe Boulevard and at Hornby Community Centre on Steeles Avenue, will consist of games, Bible stories, crafts, singing and snacks.

Clubs are for children aged 4 years to grade 6. There's no charge to attend, and they're open to children of all religious persuasions.

New director named to Multicultural Council

Meral Kesebi has been named as the new managing director of the Halton Multicultural Council, council president Willie Campos announced recently.

Ms Kesebi's appointment came as the result of a recent staff reorganization, Campos said.

"(Kesebi) has worked in social planning and research for some time in Halton," said Mr. Campos. "She has had extensive experience working with ethno-cultural groups," he added.

A graduate of Dalhousie University with a masters degree in public administration and an honors bachelor of arts degree in international relations, Ms Kesebi will be responsible for the administration of the council's programs and services.

Ms Kesebi's responsibilities will also include managing HMC's financial responsibilities and continuing the advocacy/consultation mandate of the council, said Mr. Campos.

Mr. Campos said HMC, whose mandate is to educate the public about the value and benefits of ethnic diversity, has been operating since 1979.

HMC also assists immigrants and refugees to settle and integrate in Canada. It has also established a free English as a Second Language program and provides volunteer translators/interpreters to various community agencies, school boards and government organizations.
