

Irish farmers visit Halton on Wednesday

Irish eyes will be smiling next Wednesday (Oct. 6) when a tour bus carrying 80 Irish Macra Na Feirme members rolls into Halton.

The guests of Halton Junior Farmers, these young agriculturalists will experience a day of touring some of Halton's finer farming operations and then be treated to a barbecue and dance.

The barbecue will be held at the Milton Fair Grounds, exhibition theatre, at 7:30 p.m. The dance will follow. The public is welcome. The cost is $5.

Macra Na Feirme is a rural-based organization in Ireland for young adults aged 17 and over.

Lecturer Milt Hughes will speak in Hornby

Lecturer and author Milt Hughes will be speaking at the Hornby Community Centre this Sunday, in an event co-sponsored by the Grace Baptist Church.

Mr. Hughes will be leading a conference on "Living in a Pluralistic World; Developing a Christian World View." The event takes place from 11 a.m. to noon.

Gladys Hughes will be leading special seminars on codependency and overcoming childhood trauma.

The conference is free and open to the public. For more information, contact Baptist Student Ministries at 875-3060 or Grace Baptist Church at 824-7994.

Mr. Hughes has worked with student ministries in the United States for more than 20 years and is a senior editor of Student magazine. He lectures on the American college and university circuit.

Mountsberg features special bird banding event

The banding of the 100,000th bird will be featured during the "Friends of a Feather" event at Mountsberg Wildlife Centre this Sunday (Oct. 3).

The event will be the culmination of an extensive bird-banding program which began in 1976 at the centre. The banding will take place at around 11 a.m. during banding demonstrations near the interpretive centre.

Other activities will include face painting, wagon rides, falconry and guided hikes, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
