

Million dollar races at Mohawk Friday

The top pacers and trotters in the country are expected to compete in the four divisional events of the Cadillac Breeder's Crown Open at Mohawk Raceway this Friday (Oct. 8). The races are worth $1.2 million.

The five-eighths mile oval will feature the $330,000 Open Trot (for trotters three years old and up), the $330,000 Open Pace (for pacers aged three and up), the $280,000 Open Mare Pace and the $280,000 Open Mare Trot.

This is the first year that three year olds may opt to race in a mare or open event or that fillies and mares can choose to race in an open event.

The major contenders for the Open Pace have battled all year on racetracks across the country. In the far corner is Staying Together, a four year old son of Panorama. The horse is trained by ace conditioner Bob McIntosh, who won this division in 1991 with Camluck and 1992 with Artsplace.

Staying Together has had a stellar season, winning 18 of 22 starts and establishing a race record of 1:48.2. He has crushed the competition in race after race and appears unbeatable.

Not far behind Staying Together looms Cambest, with some $1.2 million banked to date. Cambest and driver Bill O'Donnell obliterated Matts Scooter's mile standard by two full lengths in August, speeding to a 1:46.2 time trial mark at Springfield, Ill. Cambest is now the fastest standardbred of all time, but has his work cut out for him in trying to beat the unstoppable Staying Together.

In the Open Trot division honours will likely be settled between a trio of trotters. Canadian native son Earl scored over International Trot winner Giant Force in the Provenzano Trot, but the ultra-consistent Furman is looking to give trainer Bill Robinson his first Crown title.

In preparation for the Open Mare Trot, Armbrø Keepsake, who won her first Breeder's Crown title in 1991, was flown in from Europe recently, fresh off a world record 1:52.1 win at Sverigelltop. Owned and bred by the Armstrong Brothers, Armbrø Keepsake seems ready to replace Peace Corps as the new international trotting star.

In the Open Mare Pace, defending Crown champ Shady Daisy will try to become the first mare to win back to back Crown titles. She'll face stiff competition from the likes of Swing Back, Cinnamon Reel and defending sophomore champ So Fresh.

The first nine editions of the Breeders Crown series have disbursed more than $42 million in purse money, and have been the decisive factor in voting for the year end divisional honours. Nineteen world records and 43 track records have been established in the 102 races conducted since 1984.

More than 1.5 million people have witnessed a Breeders Crown event live or through satellite transmission. Another 15.6 million households have tuned in live or taped a broadcast in the nine years it has aired on The Sports Network (TSN) in Canada and ESPN in the U.S.

THE FACTS OF LIFE

Meeting on common ground

About 12 million people in the United States and Canada take part in some 500,000 self-help groups. These include groups such as Alcoholics Anonymous as well as less well-known groups - for smokers, gamblers, widowers, victims of abuse, parents of disabled children, families of alcoholic, arthritis sufferers, love addicts and many others. These groups give people a way to share their concerns and solutions to a mutual problem. For more information about groups in your area, contact your local office of the Canadian Mental Health Association or write the Canadian Council on Social Development, 55 Parkdale Avenue, Box 3505, Station C, Ottawa, Ontario, K1Y 6G1
