DAVID AMBROSE MARTIN HEANEY
May 11, 1958 - October 21, 1978

His hair is short
The laugh is still the same
Seems like it was always
The two David's
My most vivid memories of you involve him
Especially when you'd go skiing
Talk about Primping!
My strongest recollection of him is seeing him walking in front of our house that night - alone
I knew then - you were gone
When I see him now, I see you by his side
And I feel good
Because I know that friendship
Doesn't end with death -
It just takes a different form

I have always Remembered you
As a brother
This year, David, I remember you
As a friend
Take care
Monica

REMEMBRANCES in the form of donations to The Milton District Hospital Foundation are appreciated.

40 Card of Thanks

TO ALL THE PEOPLE, who helped to make "An Evening of Music and Hope. Together we can" such a huge success for our second year, we would like to extend our heartfelt thanks. Together we've taken another step towards helping to find a cure for cancer by raising $2,650 for Cancer Research. Your continuing love and support has truly been a blessing. Special thanks to the management and staff of Papa Nick's, Lorraine, Mike & Leann, Lonlee, Paula, Rob, Sharon, Jessi, Dylan and Romper for all their time, generosity and hard work. Thanks also for all the wonderful prizes and donations made by so many. Our appreciation to the Exploding Pintos, The Trenchmen, John, Brad and all the musicians for filling the evening with great music. This evening was not only Kelly's idea, but also her dream to help others. We can't thank you enough for coming together to continue the realization of that dream.

Looking forward to seeing you all again next September
All of Kelly's Family
