

Junior football team blanks Central 34-0; seniors succeed 24-8

The Milton District High School junior boys football team tasted their first victory of the season against Burlington Central recently, with a 34-0 shutout.

Loren Paddleford scored five touchdowns for the Mustangs. The defence recovered two fumbles and had two interceptions. The team plays Lester B. Pearson tomorrow (Thursday).

The senior Mustangs overwhelmed Oakville's T.A. Blakelock Wildcats 24-8 to run their record to 4-1 on the season.

J.J. Felsbourg threw a 30-yard pass to Donovan Shirley for a touchdown. Barrett Gabriel made some key catches. Dion Comba rushed for a touchdown and Mark Hulme bowled his way through the defensive line for another major.

Milton's defensive line had two sacks and the defence in general silenced the Blakelock passing game. Adam McGill and Trevor Thompson played especially strongly for Milton.

Late in the fourth quarter, Milton's defence mounted a red zone stand and halted the visitors inside the Mustang 20-yard line. Adam Refuse was instrumental.

In cross country action at the Halton championships, the midget girls were fifth overall. Shauna Burton was 21st, Kerri Borkwood 22nd, Maureen Kado 26th. The midget boys came in seventh. David Slessor was 27th, Kelly McGroty 28th.

The junior girls earned a third place finish. Jessica Meltzer was 11th, Sarah Vingoe 14th, Sylvia Sprenger 15th, Sandra Martin 18th,
