The junior Spartans clinched the Halton volleyball title in a nail-biting final in Oakville.

Spartans win volleyball title

The E.C. Drury Spartans captured the Halton junior boys volleyball championship recently by winning a nail-biting showdown against Oakville-Trafalgar High School two games to one at Sheridan College.

Drury defeated Oakville 16-14 in the first game, lost 15-12 in game two, then rallied from a 3-0 deficit to soundly decide the issue with a 15-8 win. The three matches went 90 minutes. In the opener, Milton team captain Brett Lewis and Jeff Langille set the tone with strong spiking.

In the final game, with Milton down 3-0, Spartan setter Graeme Dugale took command, and generated a variety of spikes from Steve Roy, Jamie Smulders and Darryl Grimsey. Scott Tovey and Devon Richardson provided reliable substitutions throughout the match. Teamwork evolved through the contributions of rookies Ben Wilson, Matt Russell, Ryan Lawrence and Gareth Savage.

In order to make the final, the Spartans defeated Lord Elgin High in the quarterfinals and St. Thomas Aquinas in the semifinals. The team was coached by Linda Bobor.

Merchants break losing string

• from MERCHANTS on page 21

Scoring for Milton were Henneberry, Rutland, Delaronde and former Derby Anthony Sa while Jamie Janjevich collected two assists and Scott Bertoli, Lindsay, Turner, Colin Anders and Delaronde drew the others.

Goaltender Carmelo Giurleo was between the pipes for Milton and took his second tie in, as many games.

The Merchants begin a busy week tonight (Wednesday) at Westwood Arena with the start of the Metro International Junior Hockey Classic, which features a dozen top hockey squads from Ontario and the U.S.

Milton will face the Powassan Hawks tonight at 9 p.m., the Mississauga Senators tomorrow at 9 p.m. and then take on the Wellington Dukes at 1 p.m. Friday afternoon.

The Merchants return home to take on Brampton in league play Friday night and if successful in round-robin tournament action, could be right back at Westwood for semifinal and final competition Saturday and Sunday. They also travel to Georgetown to face the Raiders Saturday night.
