COPING WITH GRIEF!
You are invited to our 2nd Annual community seminar with
KELLY WALKER
GRIEF COUNSELLOR & INSPIRATIONAL SPEAKER
He has been called a renaissance man and a phenomenal teacher.
Grief is overwhelming for most of us at any time but during the festive season it is often more painful. Music and celebration stir old memories and even though they are happy ones, our hearts have been saddened by them. Family and friends seem to have higher expectations for our recovery from the loss of a loved one than we can handle. Even our own expectations for ourselves seem too great. Our identity is unsure and so our behavior is very insecure. What was always a time of great joy becomes correspondingly difficult. J. Scott Early Funeral Home presents an evening with Kelly Walker to help you get through these days. This evening has been designed to help you get words for the feelings, learn to deal with the pain of the loss and give you some tools for coping with the personal and social situations that come with the season. There will be time for discussion, questions and a brief Memorial Time. Please join us. Joining us will be representatives from Milton support groups to inform you of grief aid in the community.
ADMISSION IS FREE
