

Future focus

Grade 5 and 6 students (l-r) Victoria Crosby, Kathleen Charco, David Meek and Jodie St. John pitched in as part of an effort by younger people to decide how Milton should grow Monday. The students were involved in the Destiny 2000 municipal planning effort at a Hugh Foster Hall seminar.

Young enjoy Christmas fellowship

Thirty young people of the youth group of Omagh Presbyterian Church met in the church hall on Friday evening, Dec. 10 for an enjoyable Christmas party.

"Getting to know you" games were followed by learning to line dance, instructed by Ruth Anne Hill.

They had fun exchanging Christmas wishes and gifts.

To bring a pleasant evening to a close, a bountiful meal was served courtesy of the leaders, Rose Anne Hill and Beth Snoj, assisted by helper Marion Patterson.

The leaders plan to hold meetings every other week on Friday nights. The purpose is to help our young people be guided to the good things in life through sharing, caring, fellowship and fun.

Young people in the Boyne and Omagh areas or others, if interested, between the ages of 11 to 17 years are invited to attend.

The next meeting takes place in the new year.

At a meeting December 3, the group made many decorations — chains, snowflakes — and December 4 they went to Milton District Hospital and decorated a Christmas tree.

The also decorated the lounge in the chronic care ward, and later were treated to cookies and juice.
