Early exit in tournament for Milton Merchants

By STEVE LEBLANC
Special to The Champion

Some tough competition and some inconsistent hockey on their part combined to give the Milton Merchants an early exit from the annual Newmarket Junior A Showcase Tournament last week.

The Merchants, who finished 1993 league play with a 16-13-2 record, had problems turning in consistent efforts over the week and took three straight losses in the tournament.

Milton started the week off with a 4-3 loss to Cobourg, despite holding a two-goal lead late in the second period. Team captain Daner Finn, Pat Henneberry and rookie Scott Bertoli scored Milton's goals while netminder Scott Hay was between the pipes and was named player of the game for his team.

The following day, the Merchants got off to a rough start against Thornhill and fell behind 4-0 after the first two periods. Despite a sensational final stanza, they simply ran out of time and took another 4-3 loss — which eliminated them from advancing to the semifinals.

Hay had another great performance in net but took another loss while Finn, Bertoli and Henneberry once again combined for Milton's goals. Troy Sweet also had a good game and picked up assists on all three goals.

In their final round-robin game, the Merchants met up with Rayside-Balfour and while they picked up their scoring a little, they went down 6-5.

With Jeff Lillie moving up to the Kitchener Rangers last week, Hay played the third game as well and turned in two solid periods before handing it over to bantam call-up Donald Perry.

Milton forward Mike McPhail led his team with a pair of goals and was the player of the game while Finn, Doug Mann and Jamie Janjevich notched singles.

Cobourg placed first in Milton's division and was later beaten by Hamilton in the semifinals. Hamilton took down Newmarket 9-5 to win the tournament.

In other action last week, Merchant rookies Bertoli and Jeff MacArthur were also part of the annual Central Ontario Provincial Junior A Rookie All-Star Game last Thursday evening.

Skating for the West Division, they helped beat the East 8-4. Bertoli scored a goal and drew three assists while MacArthur turned in some solid work on blueline duty.

Heading to the league's annual all-star game this Saturday will be team scoring leader Janjevich, sniper Ryan Delorande and all-around star Henneberry.

The all-star game will be played in Markham and 1:50 p.m.

On the move is rear guard Derek Pajot, who is now skating with the Chatham Junior B Mic-macs while Paul Foto suffered a neck injury in his first game back last week and looks as though he's finished for the season.

"I think our biggest concern now is our defence. We have some good young rear guards but we need one or two experienced defencemen down the stretch," said Merchant owner Bradley Grant. "I think getting Scott Hay was an early Christmas present for us, he proved in the tournament he is one of the league's best goaltenders."

Milton began a two-game home-stand last night (Tuesday) against Burlington. The team also hosts Oakville Friday night at 8 p.m.

Business break at Greystone

Greystone Golf Club is introducing a marketing innovation for the 1994 golf season.

A club card membership now exists for businesses people who want the advantages that a good club can offer and flexibility in its use.

A business buys one membership for $5,000 plus annual dues of $2,625 but can transfer the membership privileges day-to-day. The club card membership allows for unlimited clubhouse use for entertaining and business meetings.

Course general manager Irwin Blehm said, "we are limiting this type of membership to 50 in 1994. They will also be able to book corporate tournaments and will have first options to renew. Club card members will be allowed four tee times per week with an maximum of 20 guests at any one time."
