

Kids teach their dads a few things in annual father-son game

• from REP HOCKEY on page 12
Jason Russel and Robert Searbossa added assists.

The 'Canes were flying from the first faceoff. Streetsville was in a killer bee nightmare as Halton was buzzing around the net for three full periods. Streetsville had only five shots on the Hurricane net.

Halton completed the sweep with a big 8-1 win over the Tigers. Andrew Alarie, Czuba and Kemp all had two goals while Gilmore and Jaspersen each had singles.

Derek Templeton, Czuba, Nat Wicken, Kemp, Gilmore, Robert Ogle, Ian Bioleau, McMaster and Danny Syvret all has single assists.

The 'Canes started slowly, allowing the Tigers to score 35 seconds into the game. They then settled down and took control of the play, with strong performances by Alarie, Czuba, Daniel Powers and Russell.

REP A

Dads legends in their own minds

The Milton major peewee A Optimists held their father-son game on the weekend and although the boys receive full marks just for showing up, they were no match for the superb conditioning of the fathers.

Netminder Doug Hicks performed acrobatics in the flying fathers' net, turning back 83 shots in the first period alone to earn the shutout.

Graham "Sniper" Smith, always the innovator, used a wrong-handed stick to gain power off the backhand and was rewarded with a hat trick. Killer Cliff Copeland and John "The Hammer" Hasselfeldt added markers, as did Ken "The Knee" Neelands and Slick Rick Depelsmaeker.

Player coach Doug McKenzie, Dave "Bruiser" Brough and Joe "Bullets" Labella put on a clinic in passing for the senior squad, and Labella also won the coveted Referee's Award as the most gentlemanly player.

Minor league call-up Josh Rogers was sent out to play enforcer when the game threatened to get chippy.

All in all it was an educational experience for the boys, who got a firsthand look at the benefits of office conditioning, clean living and hard work.

Editor's note: And modesty.

Atoms out in three of OMHA playoffs

The Wallace Pontiac major atom A reps went down to defeat in three straight games in their best of five OMHA playdowns against Oakville.

In game one the Wallace crew continued to fight back from two goal deficits all night long. After spotting Oakville a 2-0 lead, Dylan Hardy raced in on his off wing and picked the short side to narrow the gap to one.

There was no scoring in the second frame but Oakville restored their two goal cushion early in the third. Steve Chuchmach scored on a rebound off a Shawn McConnell drive to make it 3-2. Zac MacKay also drew and assist.

Some 43 seconds later Oakville again took a two-goal lead. But Chuchmach from John Stringer and Kevin Spahich scored to make it 4-3.

With goaltender Jeff Johnston on the bench in favour of an extra attacker, Milton buzzed the Oakville net. McConnell scored with 18 ticks left to send the game into overtime. Chuchmach and Stringer drew assists. Milton dominated the overtime but came up short as Oakville scored two in the final minute to steal a 6-4 victory.

Milton dropped game two by an identical 6-4 margin. Hardy opened the scoring in the first from Mike Burnett and McKay. After Oakville tied it, Graham Carroll restored Wallace's lead, with assists going to Steve Harding and Chris Holmes.

Oakville tied it one minute later and the first ended at 2-2. Milton scored twice in the second and held Oakville off the scoresheet to take a 4-2 lead into period three. Matt Craig, on a solo effort, and Stringer on a breakaway off a McConnell pass, scored. Tired legs sealed Milton's fate as Oakville scored four unassisted goals in the third for the win.

A hungrier Oakville team walked away with game three and the series, skating to a 6-2 win. Harding and Craig scored the only goals for Milton, with Spahich earning an assist.

Wildcat girls undefeated

After two weeks of Halton Elementary School north division basketball action, the W.I. Dick girls team is undefeated in four games and the Centennial and Sam Sherratt boys teams are tied at three games without a loss.

In the girls league W.I. Dick dumped Stewarttown 46-30 behind the 18 points of Nicole Maher and Brooke Johnson's 15. Shaunna Fedora potted 10 for Stewarttown in the losing cause.

W.I. Dick also managed a high scoring win over Sam Sherratt, 34-30. Johnson again had 15 while Nikki Damp notched seven points and Minole Maher dropped six. Chrystal Johnston carried her Sherratt squad, popping a phenomenal 30 points, all that her team scored. W.I. Dick also managed a 46-8 win over Brookville in a late score from last week.

In other games, McKenzie-Smith downed Stewarttown 30-18 and they scraped by Centennial 32-31.

On the boys' side, Centennial's high powered offence led the way in a pair of wins this week. Centennial managed a 66-28 win over Brookville and a 55-25 win over McKenzie-Smith. Sam Sherratt got into the high scoring act with a 59-13 win over Brookville and a 45-24 win over W.I. Dick.

Against McKenzie-Smith, Centennial's Onirik Sarma led the balanced attack with 13 points while teammate Rob Macleod had 12 and Adam Moy popped nine. Scorers in the big win over Brookville were not available.

Jeff Morgan had 15, Jack Turner eight and Kevin May 6 in Sam Sherratt's win over W.I. Dick while Morgan claimed 16 and Dan Hayder 12 in their win over Brookville. For W.I. Dick, Johnny Munro had six against Sam Sherratt while Adam Hislop and Ross Smith each had four points.

In other games, McKenzie-Smith defeated Stewarttown 26-17 behind the 12 points of Andre Savard and W.I. Dick managed a convincing win over Stewarttown 44-25 thanks to nine points from Colm Sparks-Austin, seven from Nicholas Greenland and six from Willy McGinnis.
