Well-spoken girls

The Royal Canadian Legion's annual public speaking contest featured 21 elementary school students in two categories.

Elizabeth Wilds won the combined Grades 4-5-6 event and Stefanie McCann won the combined Grade 7-8 segment. Stefanie is a repeat winner. Both contests were held on February 6 at the Legion Branch on Charles Street.

Elizabeth and Stefanie will go on to compete at the district and zone level, and with continued success, the provincial final.

Boy charged in shooting

A vehicle travelling westbound on Derry Road was hit with a shot from a pellet gun Monday afternoon, Halton Regional Police say.

The driver told police he heard a loud bang at 4 p.m. and saw a gunman in a nearby house. The pellet hit the passenger side of the car.

A 12-year-old Milton boy faces charges of pointing a firearm, careless use of a firearm and having a weapon dangerous to public peace.

Fraud charges laid

A Milton man is accused of defrauding the CIBC downtown of $13,000 in a phony cheque scam.

The frauds allegedly occurred in November. A Fourth Line man, 27, is charged with fraud under $1,000 and two counts of fraud over $1,000.

Smokes stolen in break-out

Police believe a thief hid inside a Main Street East pool hall after closing and stole money and cigarettes overnight Feb. 8 and 9. Investigators found signs someone had broken out of the Q Stop Billiard through a rear door, but no signs of forced entry.

While inside, the thief pried open a cash register and stole an undetermined amount of money as well as $95 worth of cigarettes, police say.
