Three vehicles were destroyed as a 36-foot high concrete block wall collapsed Tuesday afternoon at 140 Market Drive. The wall separated two shops inside an industrial building. No one was hurt in the mishap, which is still under investigation by the Ministry of Labour. See story, front page.

Slippery songsters at Mountsberg

Spring has finally sprung, so the secretive songsters and slippery sliders are taking over the swamps. It's time once again for Mountsberg's annual Frogwatcher's Hike, to be held tonight (Friday) from 7-9 p.m.

Join the interpretive staff for a guided hike through Mountsberg's wetlands, an outdoor slideshow, and some slippery hands-on experience. Help listen and search for some of southern Ontario's amphibians this spring.

Admission is by advance payment only and space is limited. The adult fee is $8, children $5. Mountsberg is located on Milborough Line, five kilometres west of Campbellville. To register call 854-2276.
