Knife-wielding bandit

The robbery of a gas station May 16 has officers in Milton looking for a knife-wielding youth. During a quiet moment at the Pétro Canada gas bar on Ontario Street at Derry Road, a lone male entered the kiosk and demanded money while waving a knife.

The attendant handed over some cash and the culprit fled on foot. The suspect was last seen running to the rear of the Derry Auto Wash just east of the gas station at about 8:45 p.m.

Investigators wish to identify the young man who was described as white, 16 or 17 years of age, five-foot-nine, with dirty blonde hair and a thin build. He was wearing a black shirt, ski mask and baggy pants.

If this description matches someone you know, call Crime Stoppers. If you have any information that leads to an arrest in this or any other case, you may be eligible for a cash reward of up to $1,000. You need not give your name and your information will be treated with complete anonymity. Crime Stoppers does not subscribe to call display. Call 1-800-668-5151 or 825-TIPS (That's 825-8477).

A 23-minute film — directed, written and produced by a Milton woman — is expected to air on Global in August.

Victoria Muspratt's half-hour television drama, The Pony's Tail, stars several local actors. Most scenes were filmed on Abbeylara Farm, a Townline horse farm owned by Ms Muspratt's parents.

The sentimental drama centres around a woman in her 30s who looks back at a significant time in her childhood, focusing on her relationship with her father.

"I made it because I think there (are) a lot of families that have difficulty reaching out to each other."

The film stars Lara Burke, 10, of Campbellville, who plays the main character — eight-year-old Claire. In several scenes, Claire rides her pet pony Flannagan and a special bond forms between them.

Milton-area twins Brett and Ryan Moon, both 8, portray Claire's cousins, with whom she competes in a pony race. Claire's brother is played by Jeff Taylor of Toronto.

The film also stars adult actors Liesha Wagner of Campbellville, as well as Richard Vitzpatrick and Claire Rankin, both of Toronto.

Ms Muspratt, 23, says she always knew she was going to be in the entertainment industry. She has been an
