Fero case to trial

Three former Fero Waste Disposal officials and an employee have been ordered to stand trial on fraud charges.

A lengthy preliminary hearing in the case wrapped up last week in Milton provincial court. It began last October 26 and went on intermittently for about seven days.

Following a five-month investigation, Halton Regional Police charged the former Steeles Avenue waste disposal company's president, treasurer, secretary and an office worker in January, 1993 for allegedly overcharging customers.

Police say altered billings defrauded six clients of $75,000.

Charged are Albino Prschutta, 45, of Freulton; Ray Venerus, 41, of No. 5 Sideroad; Dorian Poloni, 43, of Fourth Line and Deborah Marple, 32, of First Line.

The case will be heard in Milton general division court. The trial date will be set July 4.

Police press charges, find drug-laden shoes

Halton Regional Police have charged a woman who allegedly attempted to pass drugs to a Maplehurst Correctional Centre inmate through a pair of shoes.

A prison security officer discovered a four-gram bag of cocaine and a small amount of hashish in the insoles of a pair of black running shoes June 1 at 8:30 p.m.

A woman visiting an inmate attempted to bring the shoes, which were in a box, into the jail as a gift, police say.

A 28-year-old Mc-streal woman is charged with two counts of possession of a narcotic for the purpose of trafficking.

She was held in custody for a bail hearing yesterday.
