A DOWNTOWN MILTON WEEKLY REPORT ON COMMUNITY NEWS, VIEWS & HAPPENINGS

Downtown Milton Welcomes the Waltzing Weasel

The Waltzing Weasel has come to Downtown Milton! The restaurant has been open since June 1, and many people have noticed.

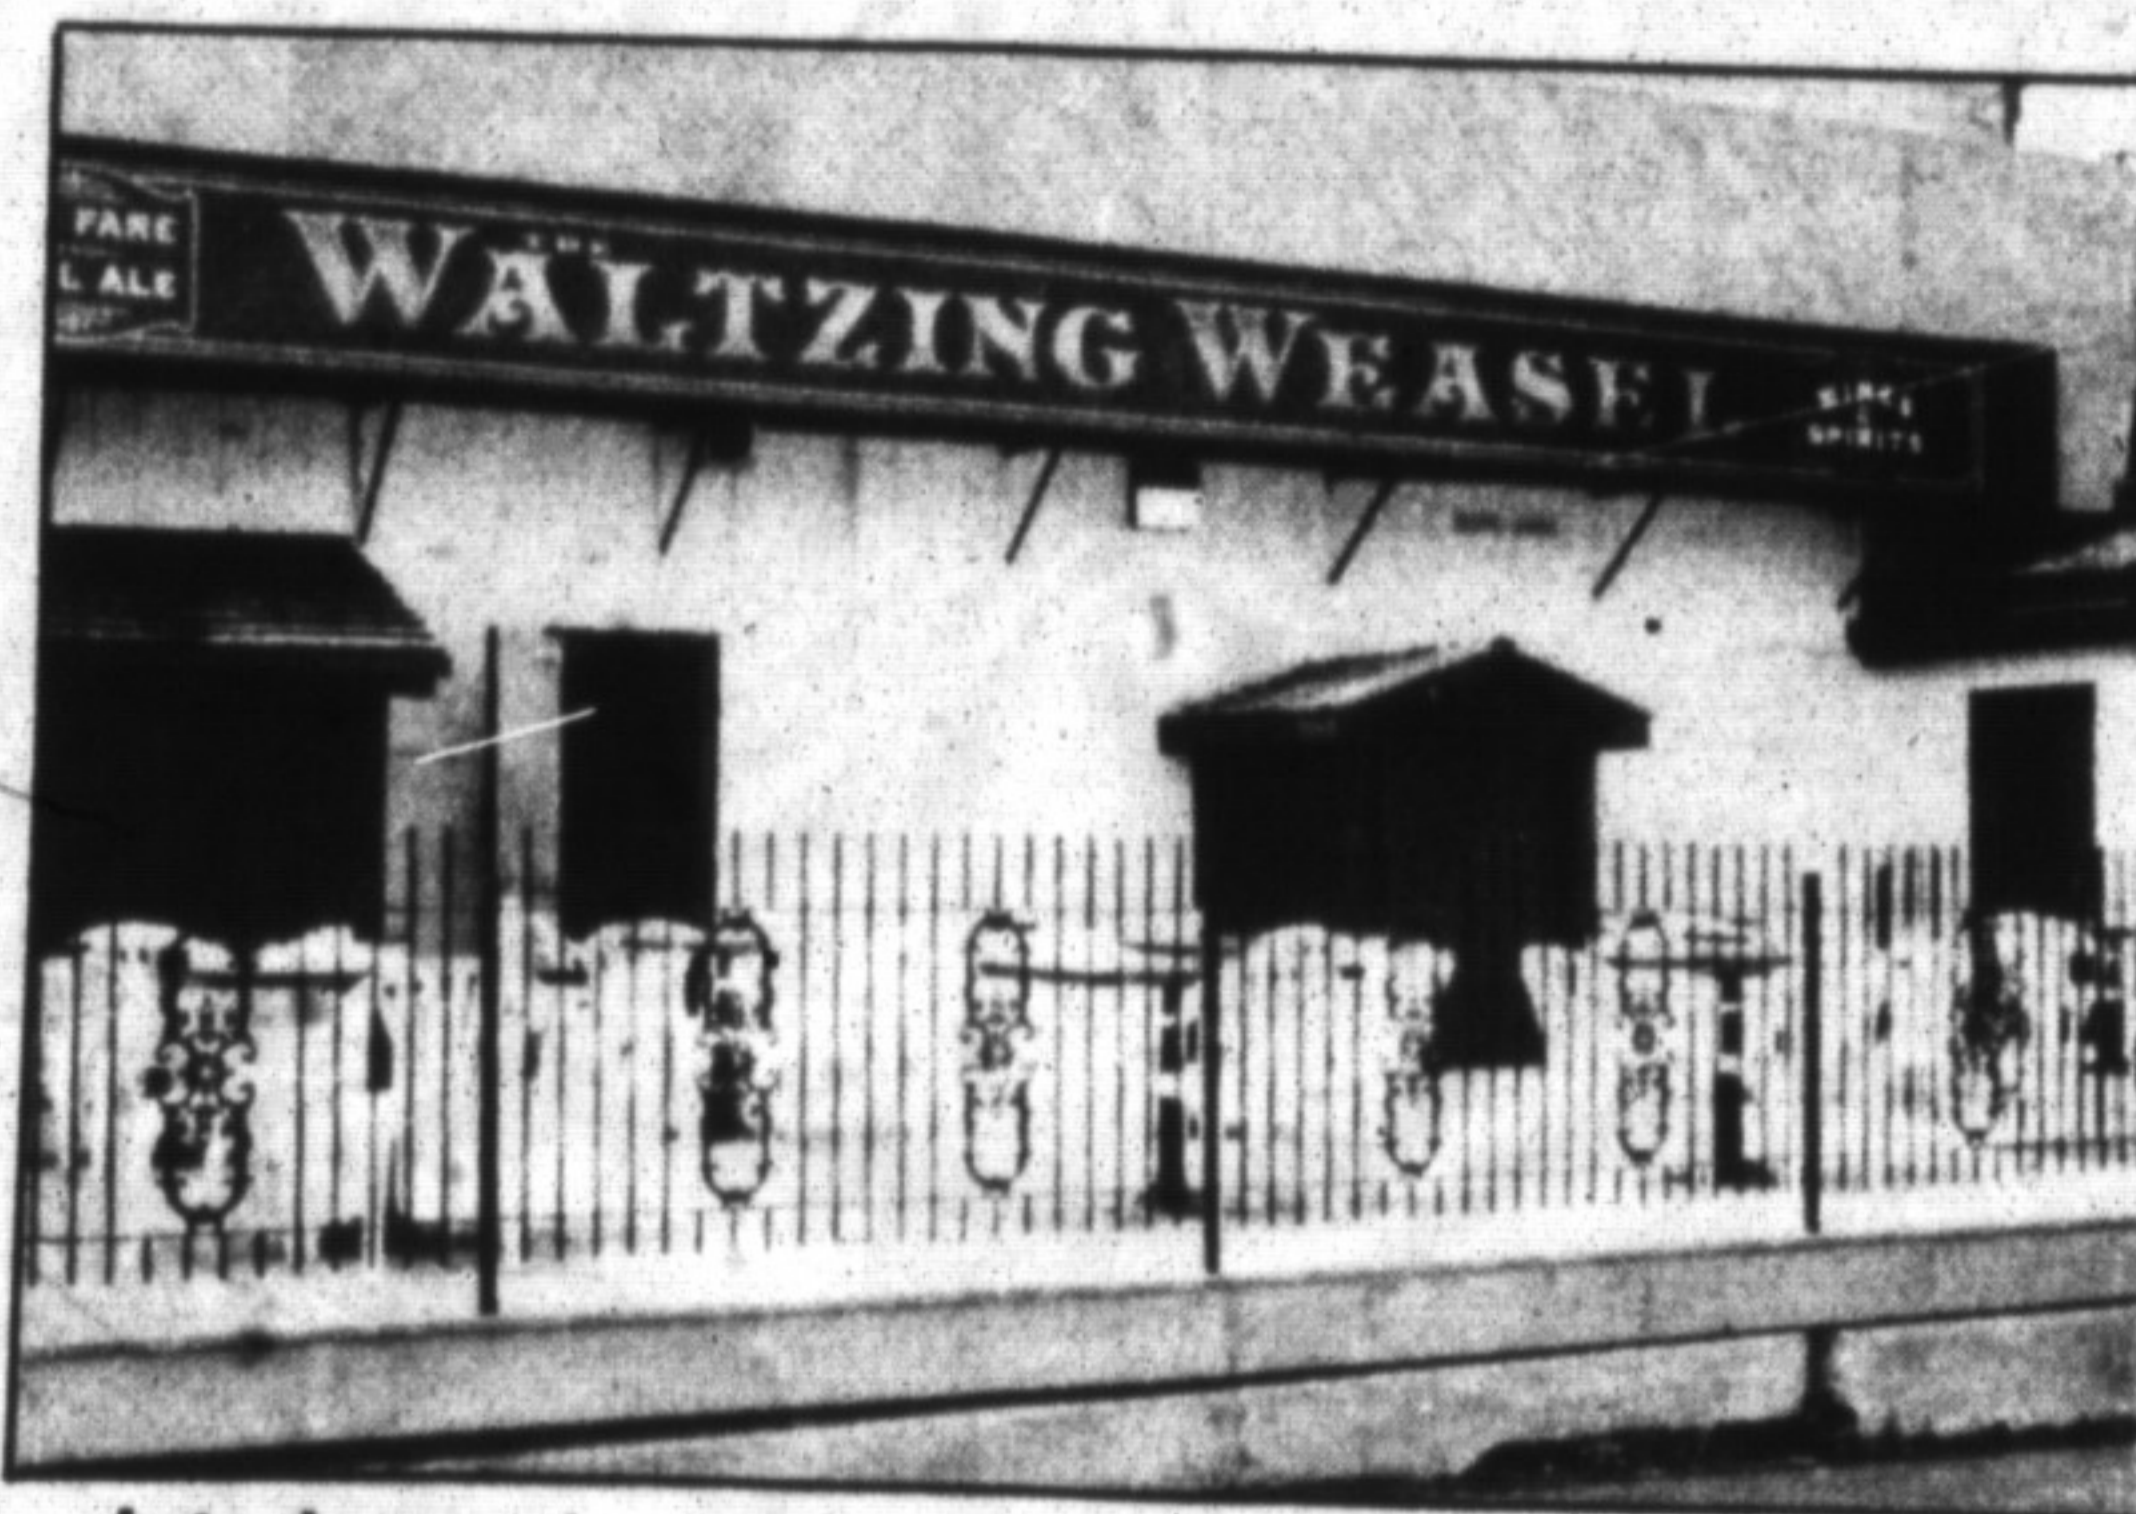

Much work has gone into converting the old Papa Nick's location into the British style pub now known as the Waltzing Weasel. Owners Doug Ranch, Ashley Kelly and Noel Farrell have put a lot of time, effort and money into transforming the old hotel into the beautiful Waltzing Weasel.

This work has not gone unnoticed! The carpeting, brass railings, walls, furniture and decor all combine for a cosy environment. Those who may remember the old hotel would be hard pressed to place the Waltzing Weasel's interior inside of it. Changes were made not only on the interior but the exterior as well. Signs for the Waltzing Weasel add a touch of class, and the patio looks unbelievable.

The banquet room is licensed for 150 people, the downstairs for 87 (which is available for bookings), and another 86 on the patio. There is a dart area which will be occasionally used for entertainment on weekends, as well as a giant screen TV (that many soccer fans have come to know in the past month).

For the more serious diners and families the Waltzing Weasel is also for you! Doug Ranch is the first to admit his "pride in Chef Erik Kjaer". When pressed to name a particular item on the menu he prefers, Doug stated the Weekend Brunch for Two. "It being a great value ($10.95) and a lot of good food to eat."

The bar features 12 draughts on tap both domestic and imported, something to satisfy almost any beer connoisseur.

Interior and exterior views of the newly opened Waltzing Weasel

The Waltzing Weasel is hosting its Grand Opening this Saturday, July 9. Entertainment gets underway from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. on the patio (weather permitting) and 9:00 p.m. till 1:00 a.m. inside.

As well as the entertainment there will be a pig roast, which is a tradition from the Waltzing Weasel in Oshawa. The roast will be served around 5:00 p.m. with plates going for $4.95 (including salads). If you come earlier in the day you can sit out on the patio with a beer and talk to Maradona (the pig.)

Those who remember the old hotel should drop by to appreciate the changes, and those who don't can still appreciate the Waltzing Weasel.

The Waltzing Weasel is located at 270 Main Street and is open at 11 a.m. on weekdays and 9 a.m. on weekends.
