The Queen's Plate, the country's most prestigious thoroughbred horse meet, will be held Sunday. Post time is 1 p.m.

Local skater

Tours world with Disney On Ice

With all the paperwork out of the way, Mr. Allen can now concentrate on his skating, and there will be a lot of it. Beginning this weekend in Seoul, he will be performing in two two-hour shows each day for 16 days.

The tour will then move to Japan, where the first performance is scheduled for Tokyo on July 15. Between Seoul and Tokyo, there will be equal amounts of travel and practice.

In late November, Mr. Allen will return home for a month, but then it'll be back out on the road early in the new year.

"They haven't sent me an itinerary for next year yet," said Mr. Allen. However, he does know he'll be skating in such foreign locales as China and Australia.

At some point, he may be joined by his girlfriend, Tina Reinhart. Ms Reinhart, a Brampton resident, has tried out and according to Mr. Allen expects to hear back from Disney in the next little while
